Strawberry Shortcake's STORYBOOK TO COLOR

TOYS 'R' US TOYS 'R' US
84574 A PRICE
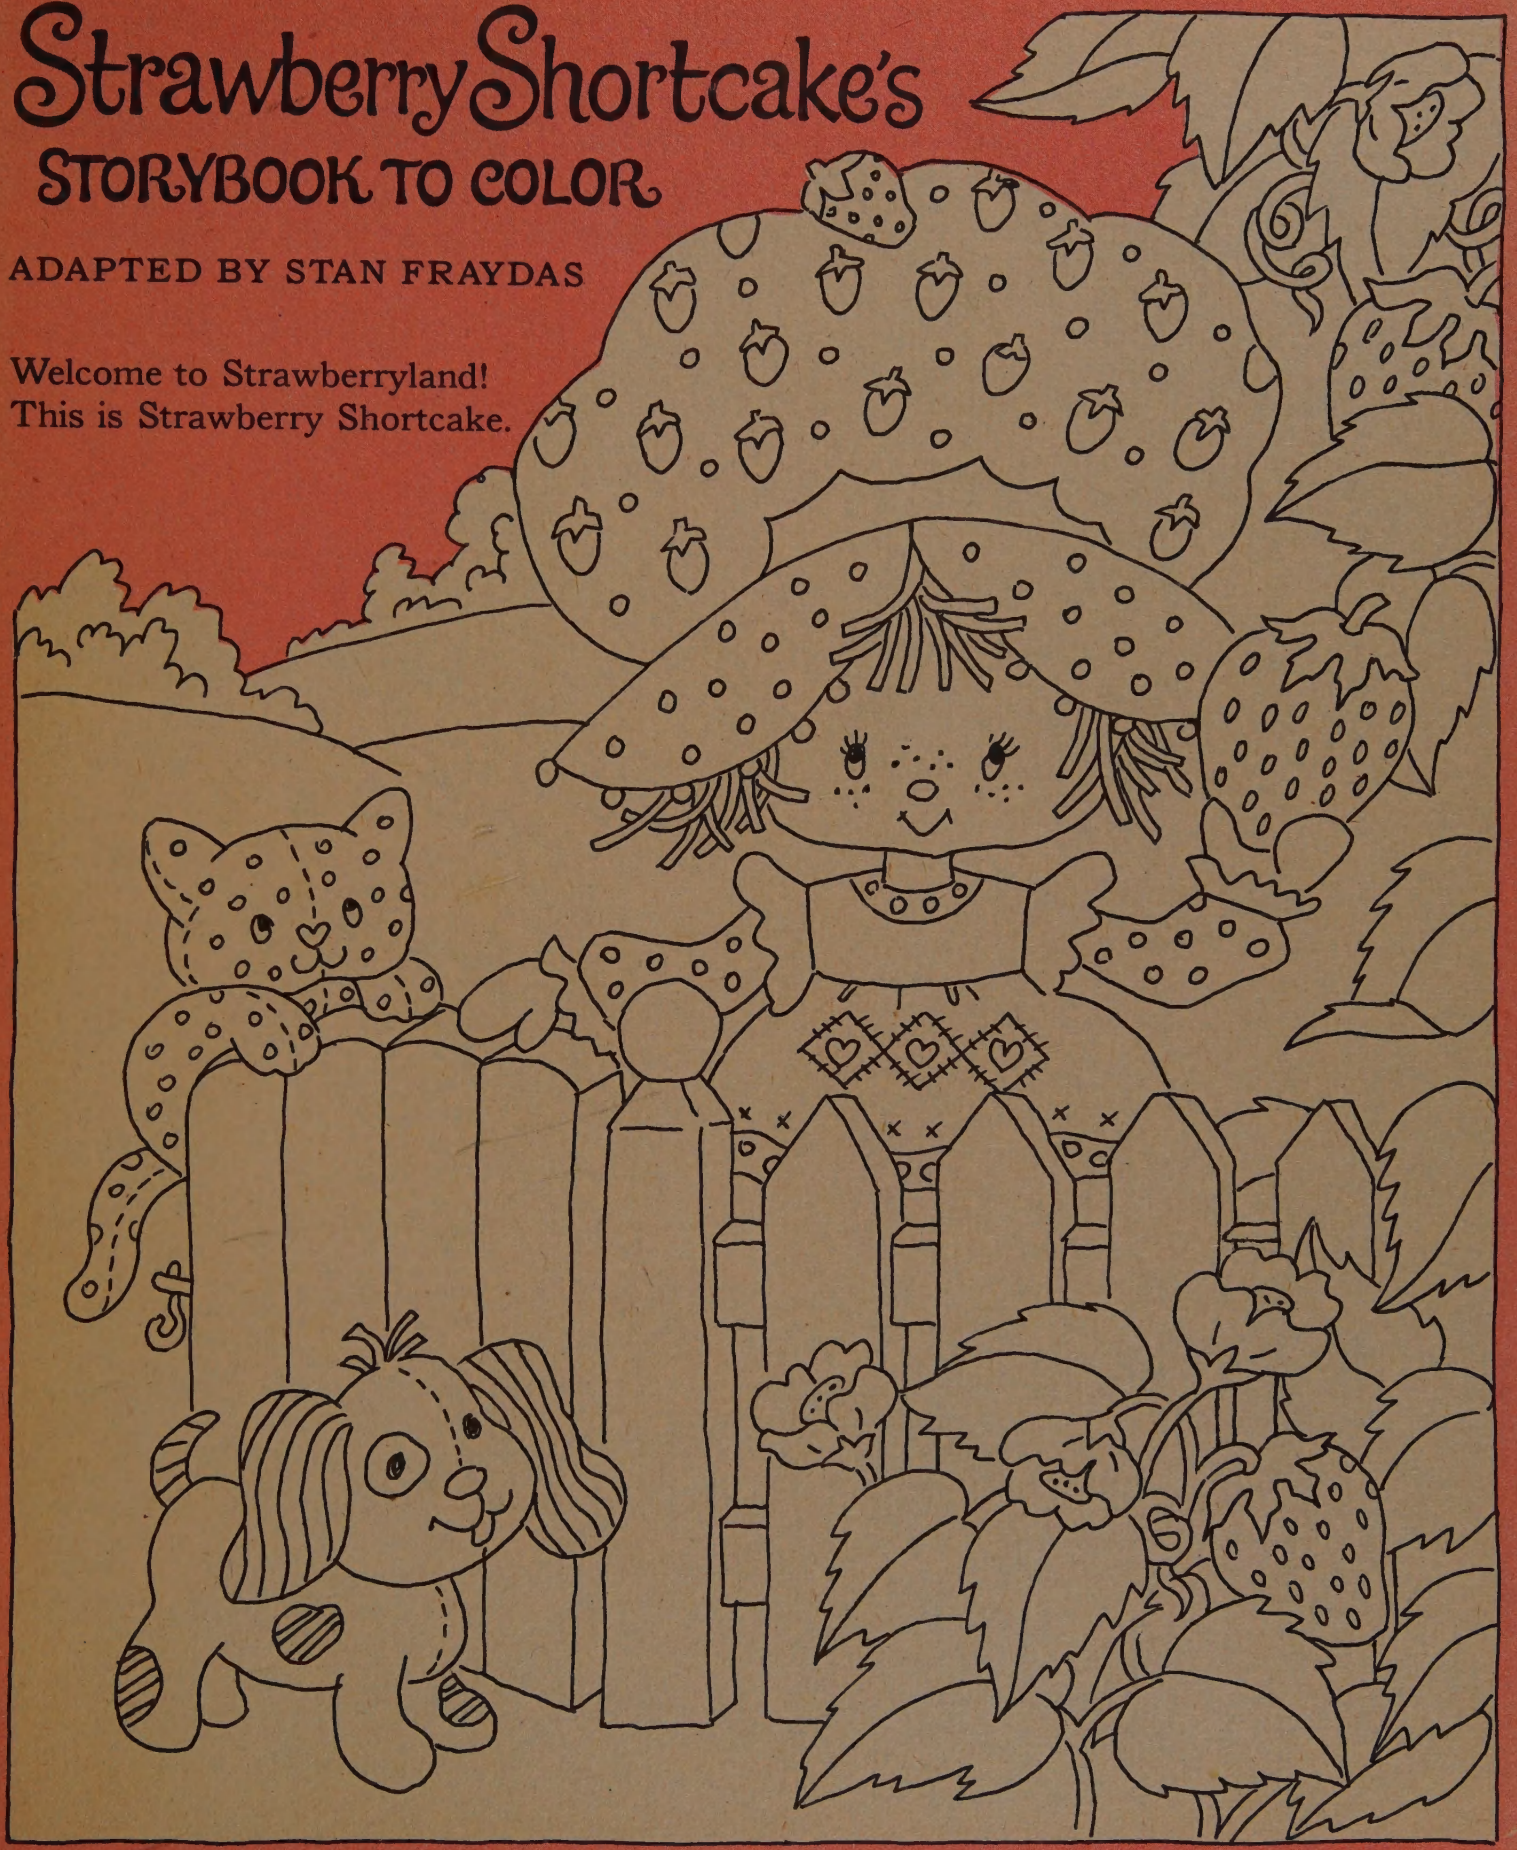
C510076X>>$1.57

Random House

Strawberry Shortcake's
STORYBOOK TO COLOR

ADAPTED BY STAN FRAYDAS

Welcome to Strawberryland!
This is Strawberry Shortcake.



Copyright © 1980 by American Greetings Corporation. All rights reserved under International and Pan-American Copyright Conventions. Published in the United States by Random House, Inc., New York, and simultaneously in Canada by Random House of Canada Limited, Toronto. ISBN: 0-394-84574-9 Manufactured in the United States of America 0 9 8 7 6 5 4 3

Strawberry Shortcake wakes up early every morning to work in her beautiful flower garden.

Here comes Huckleberry Pie.
He is giving Apple Dumplin'
a bumpy ride through Strawberry's garden.

Strawberry Shortcake and her friends are having a tea party in the garden.
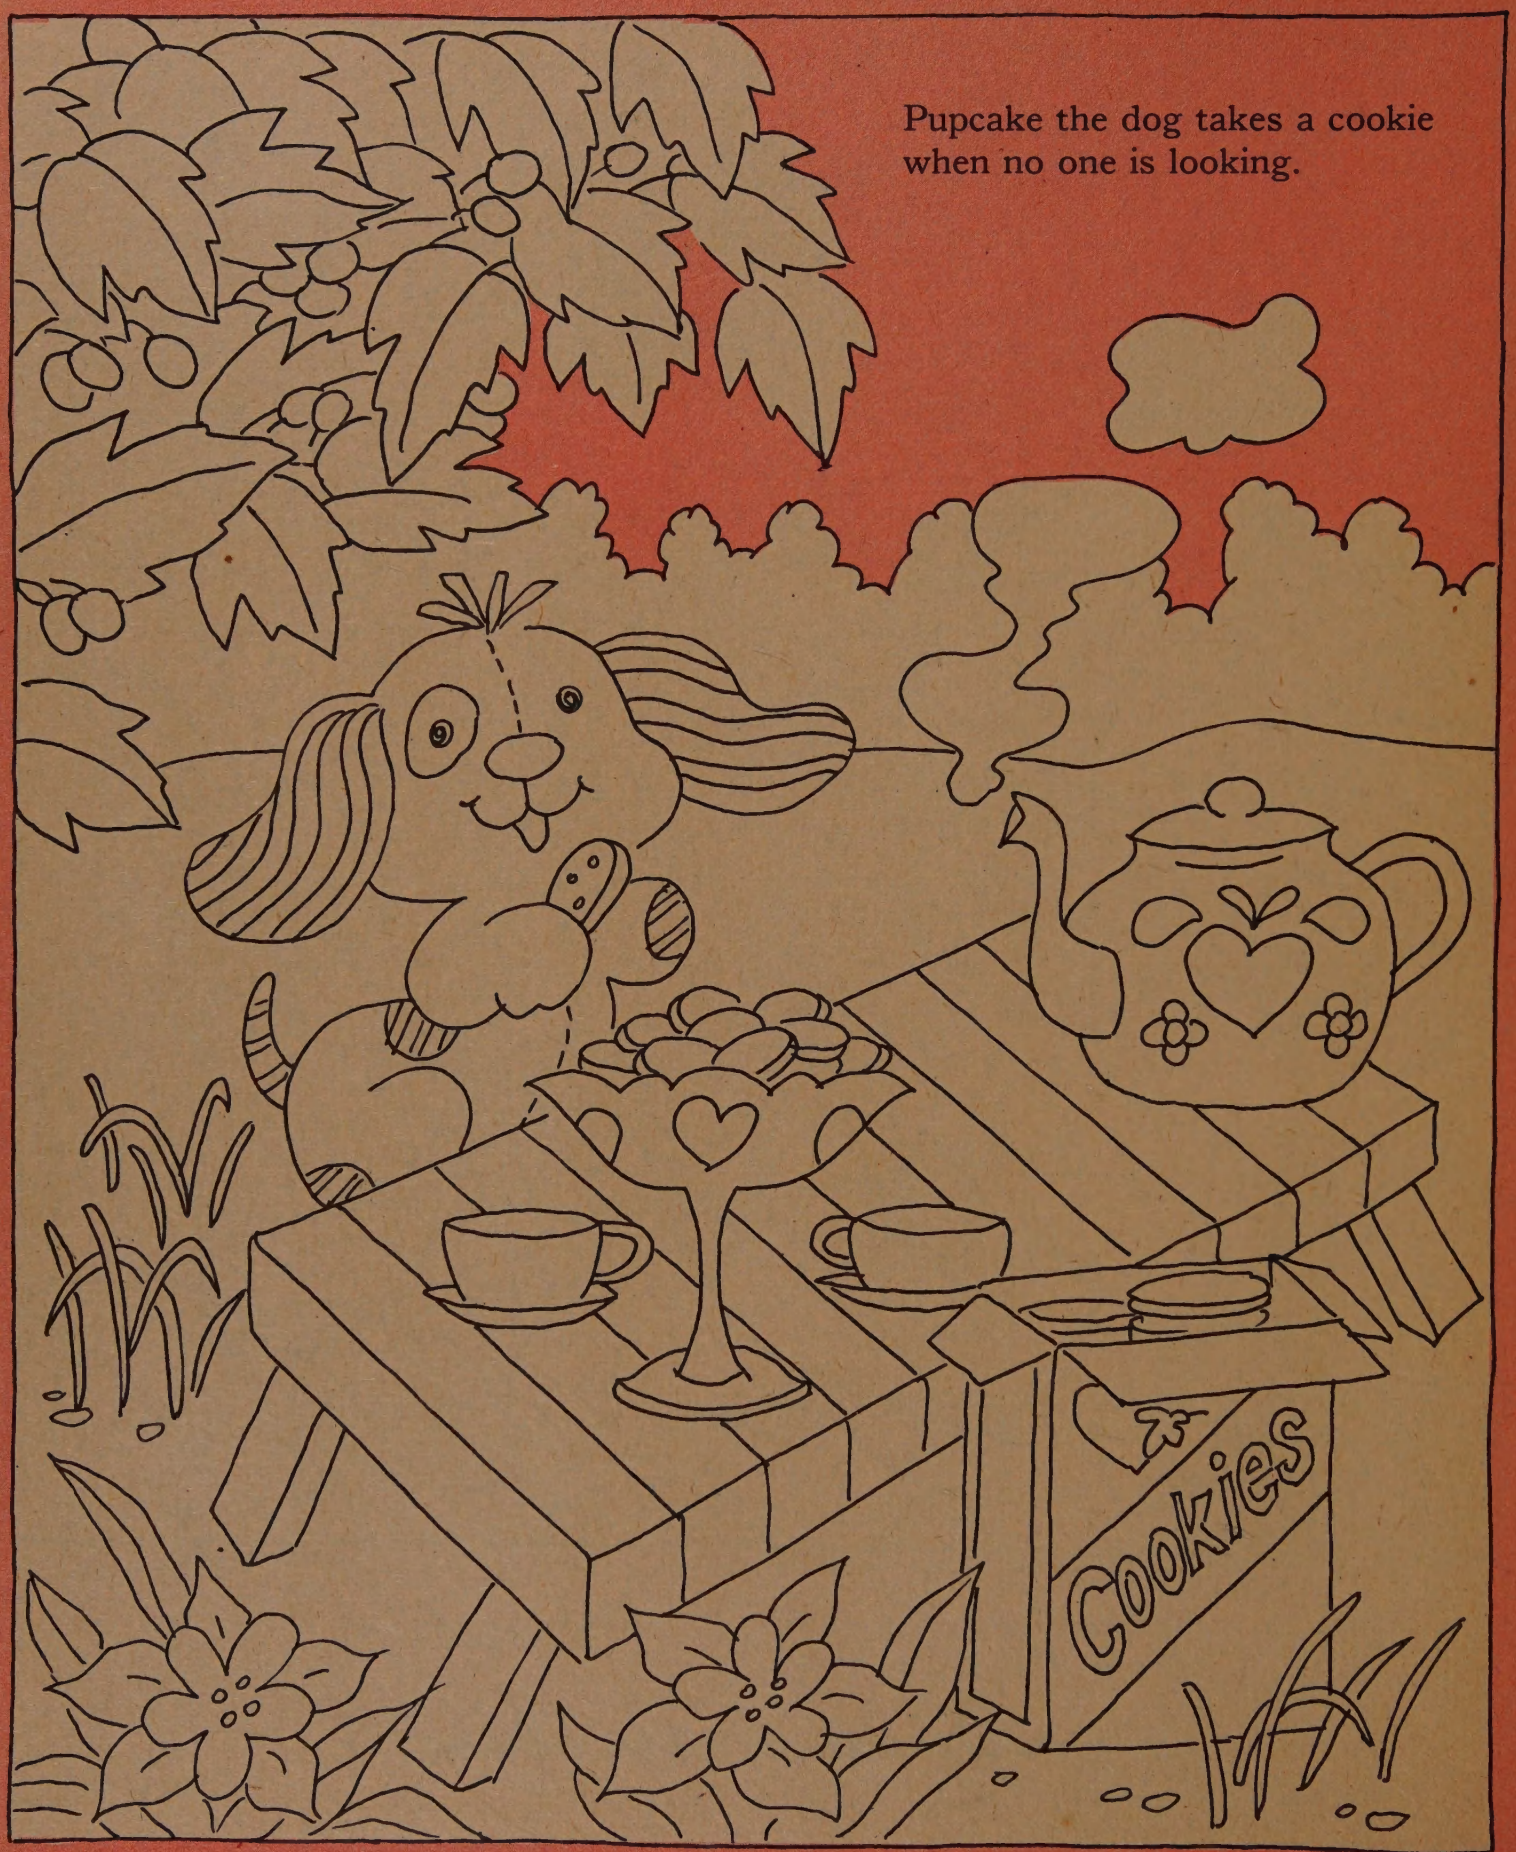
"The tea is ready!" says Raspberry Tart.

"I almost forgot the cookies!" says Blueberry Muffin.

Custard the cat has forgotten teatime!

Pupcake the dog takes a cookie when no one is looking.



Lucky Bug is coming to tea, too.
Hurry, Lucky Bug!

Today Strawberry Shortcake is planting seeds in her garden.
SEEDS

Blueberry Muffin has thought of a new way to dig holes for the seeds—with her pogo stick!

Lucky Bug and Huckleberry Pie know how to stay dry when it rains.

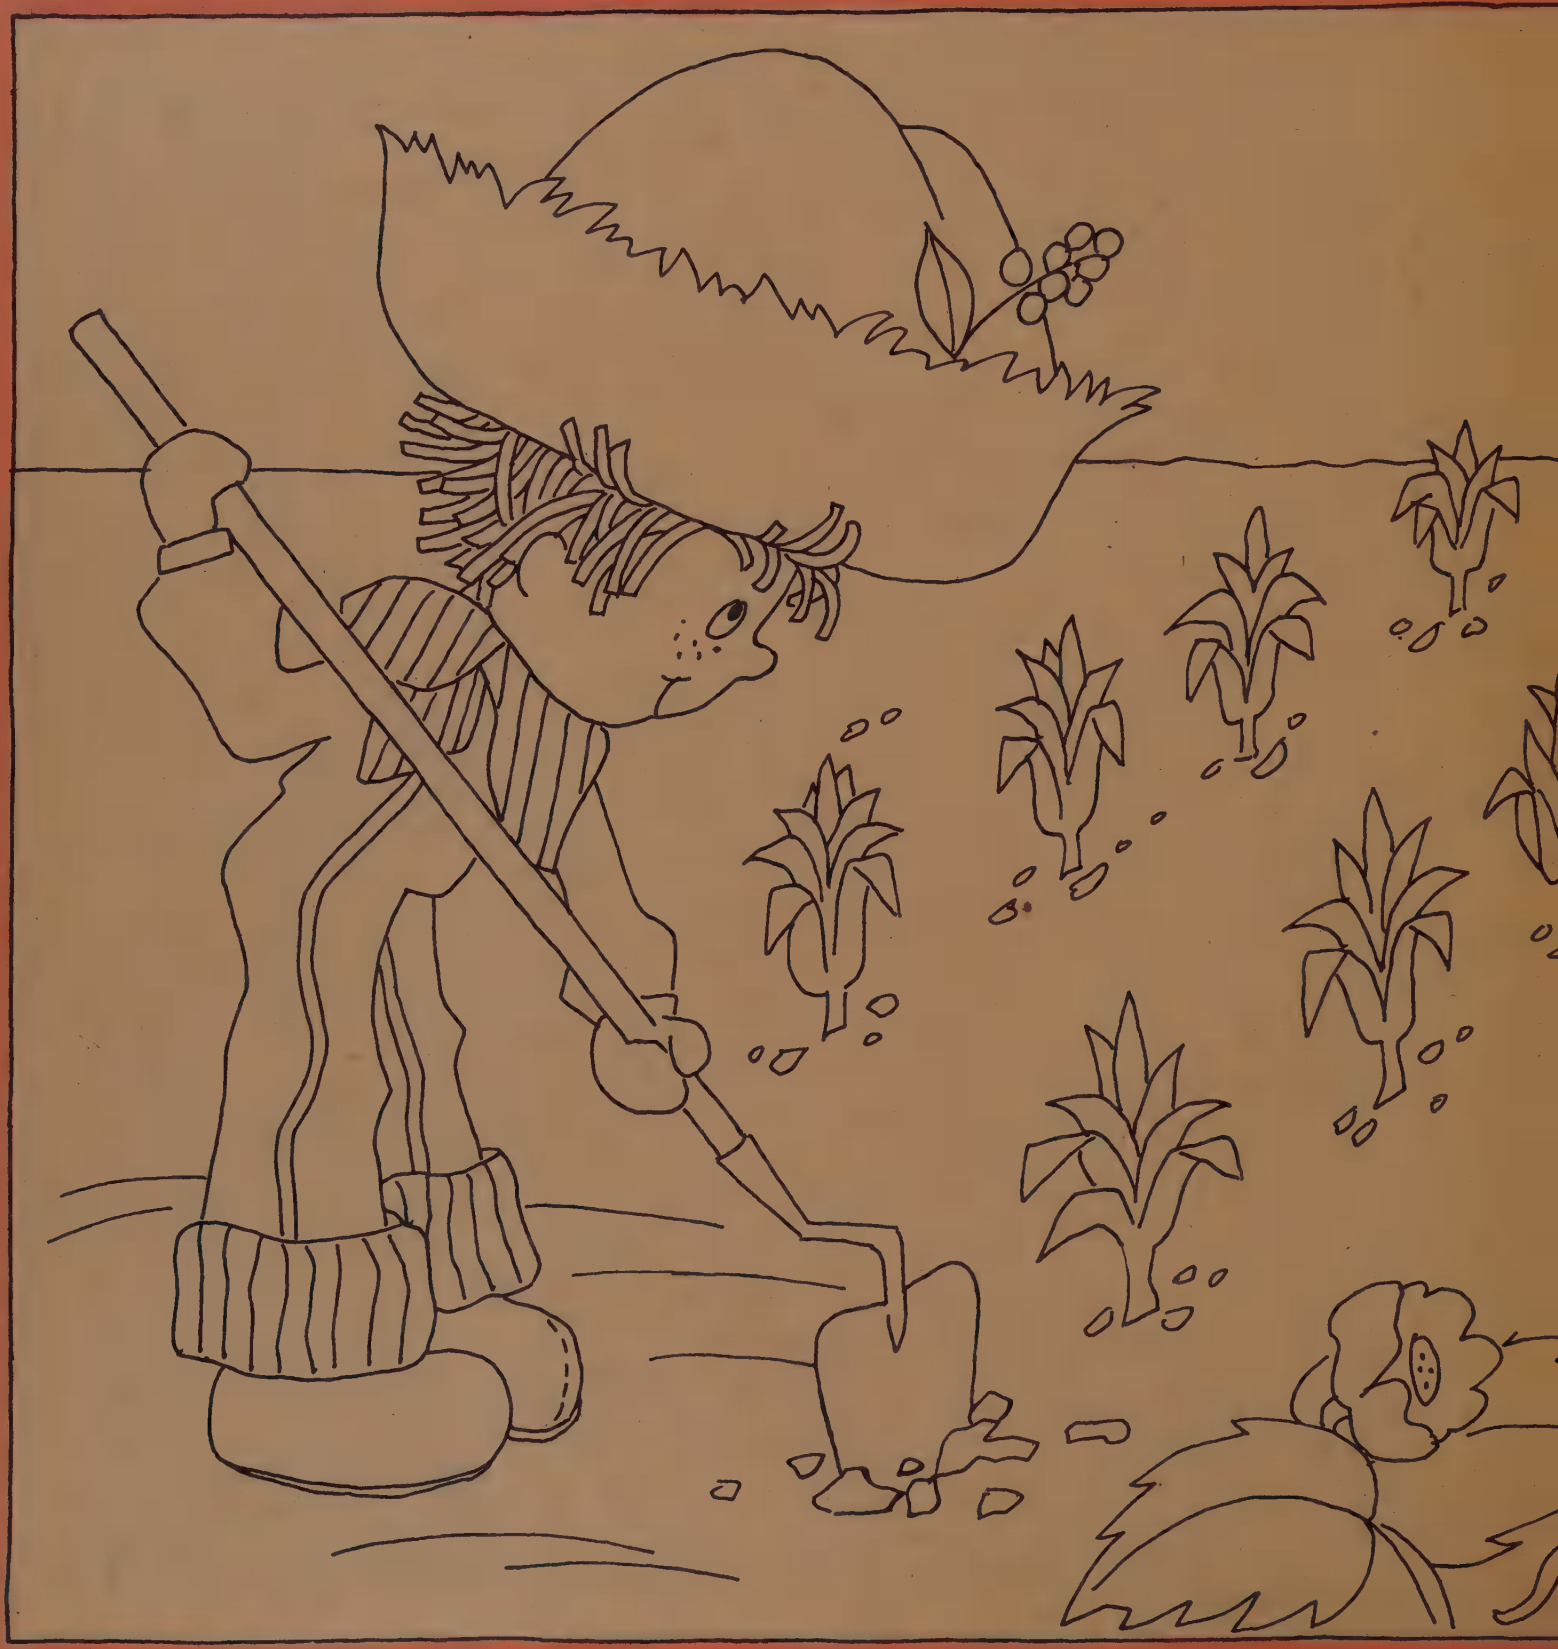
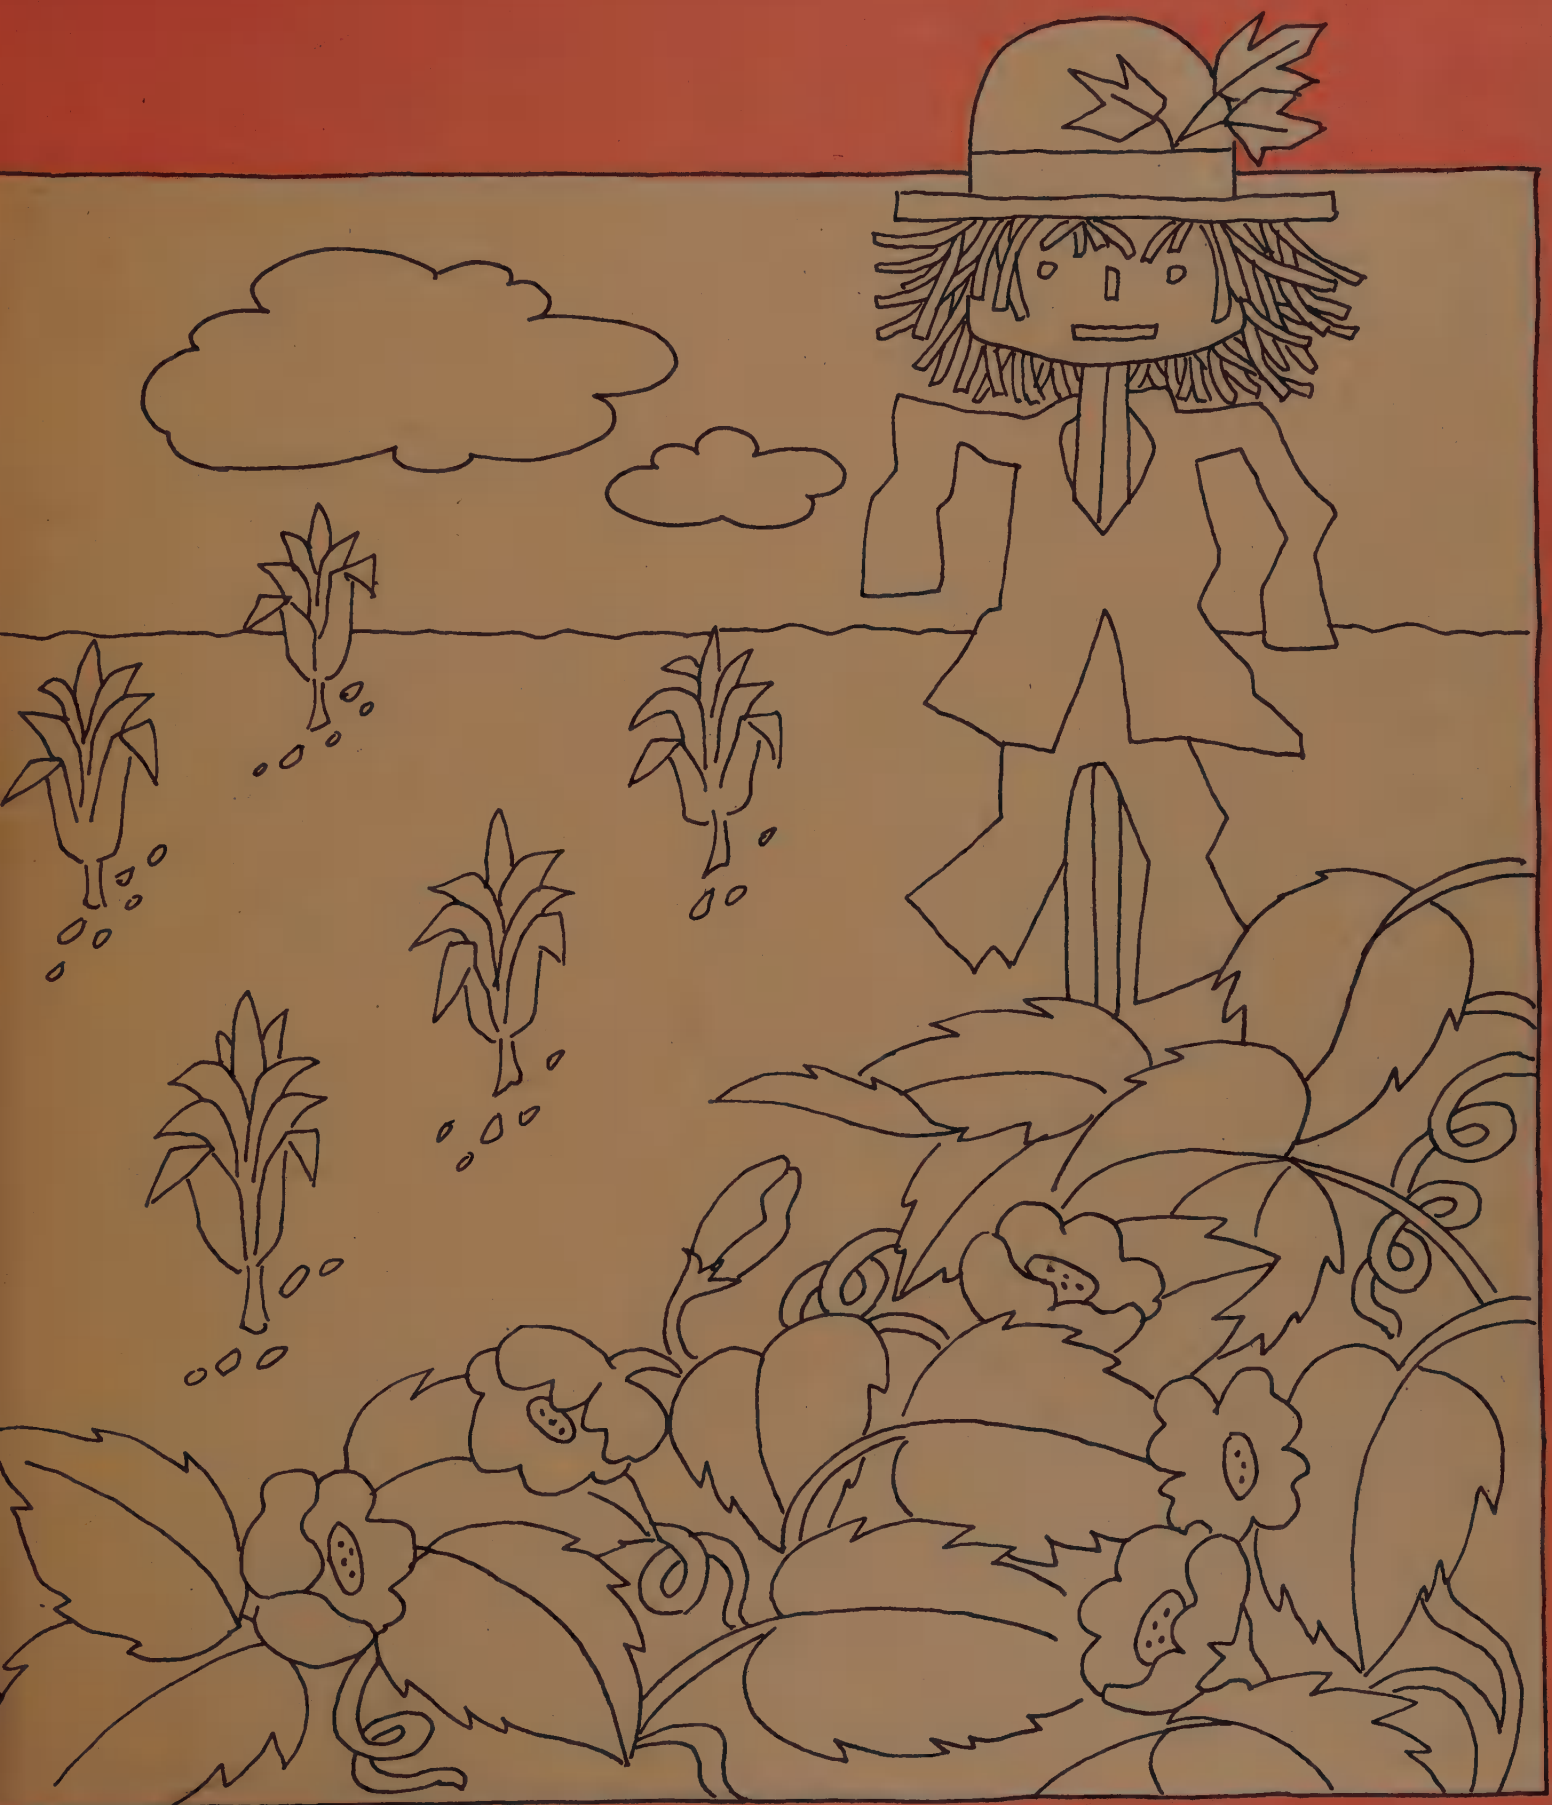
Little green plants finally come up.
Huckleberry works in the field with his hoe.





"Look at this big carrot!" says Raspberry Tart.
"We grow good vegetables in Strawberryland!"

green pepper

tomato celery

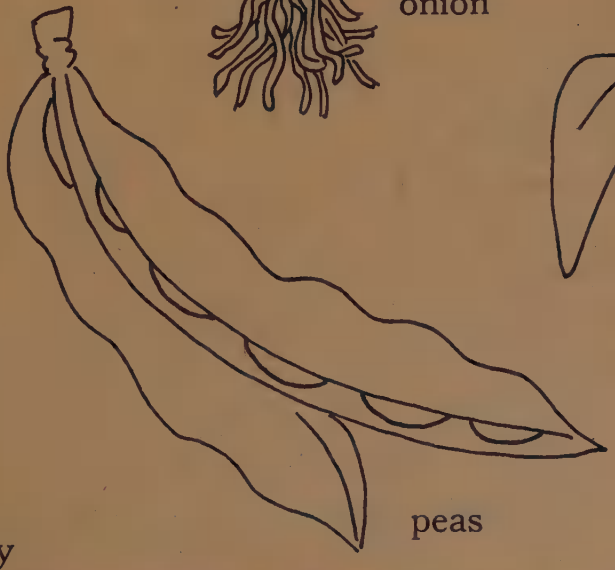
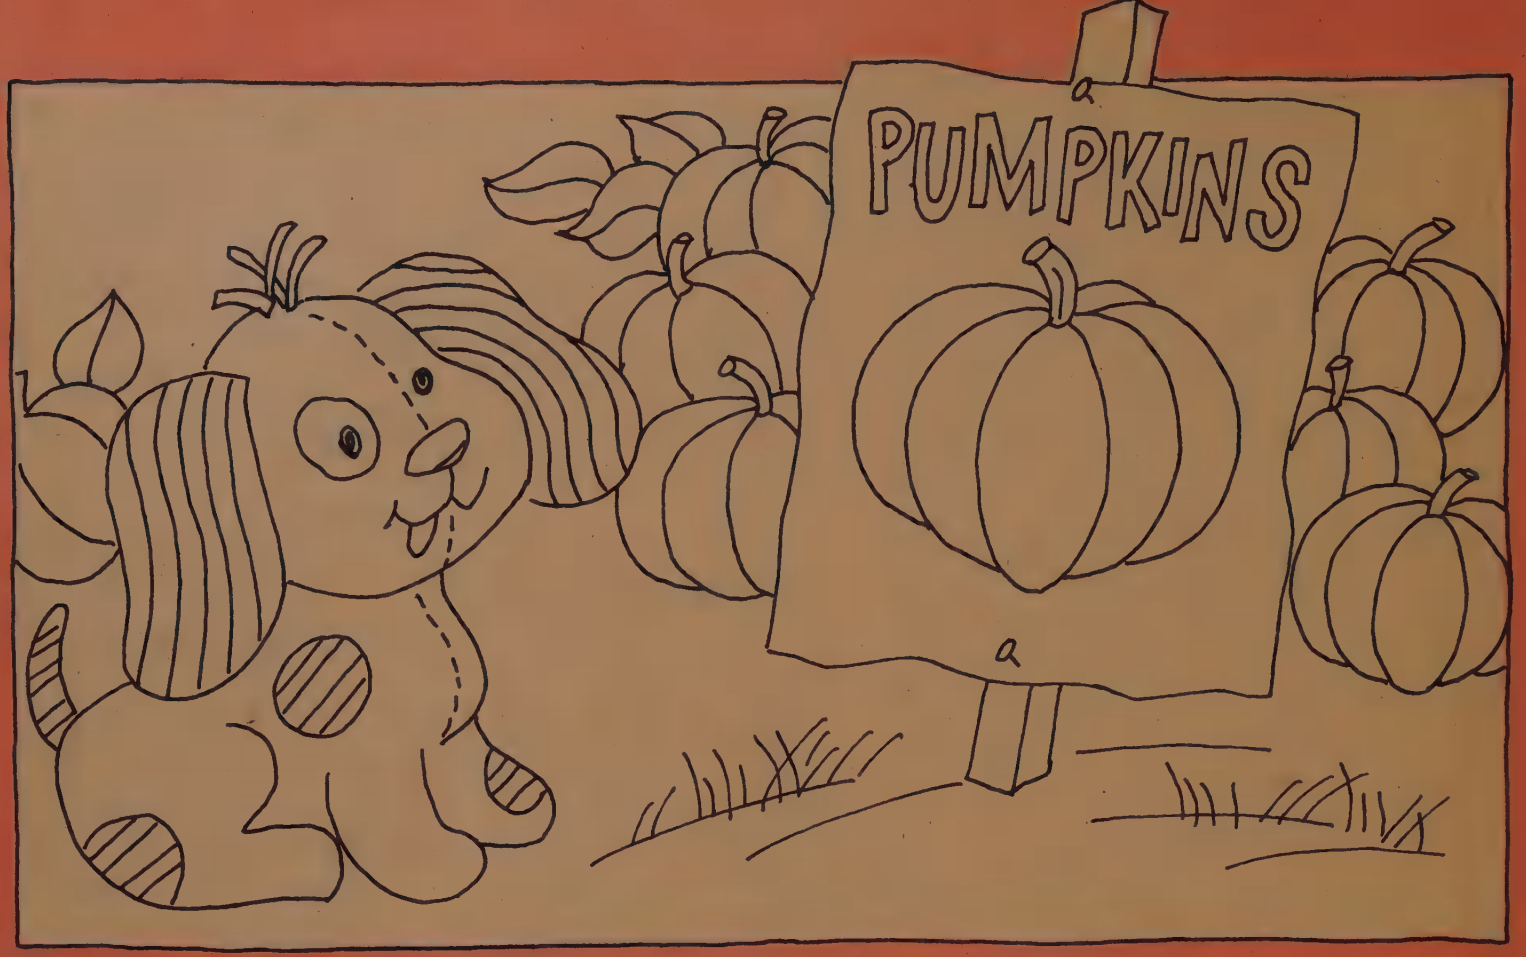
onion



peas

corn



"Oh boy, pumpkins!" says Pupcake.
"Let's make a pumpkin pie!"

wheelbarrow shovel hose garden fork

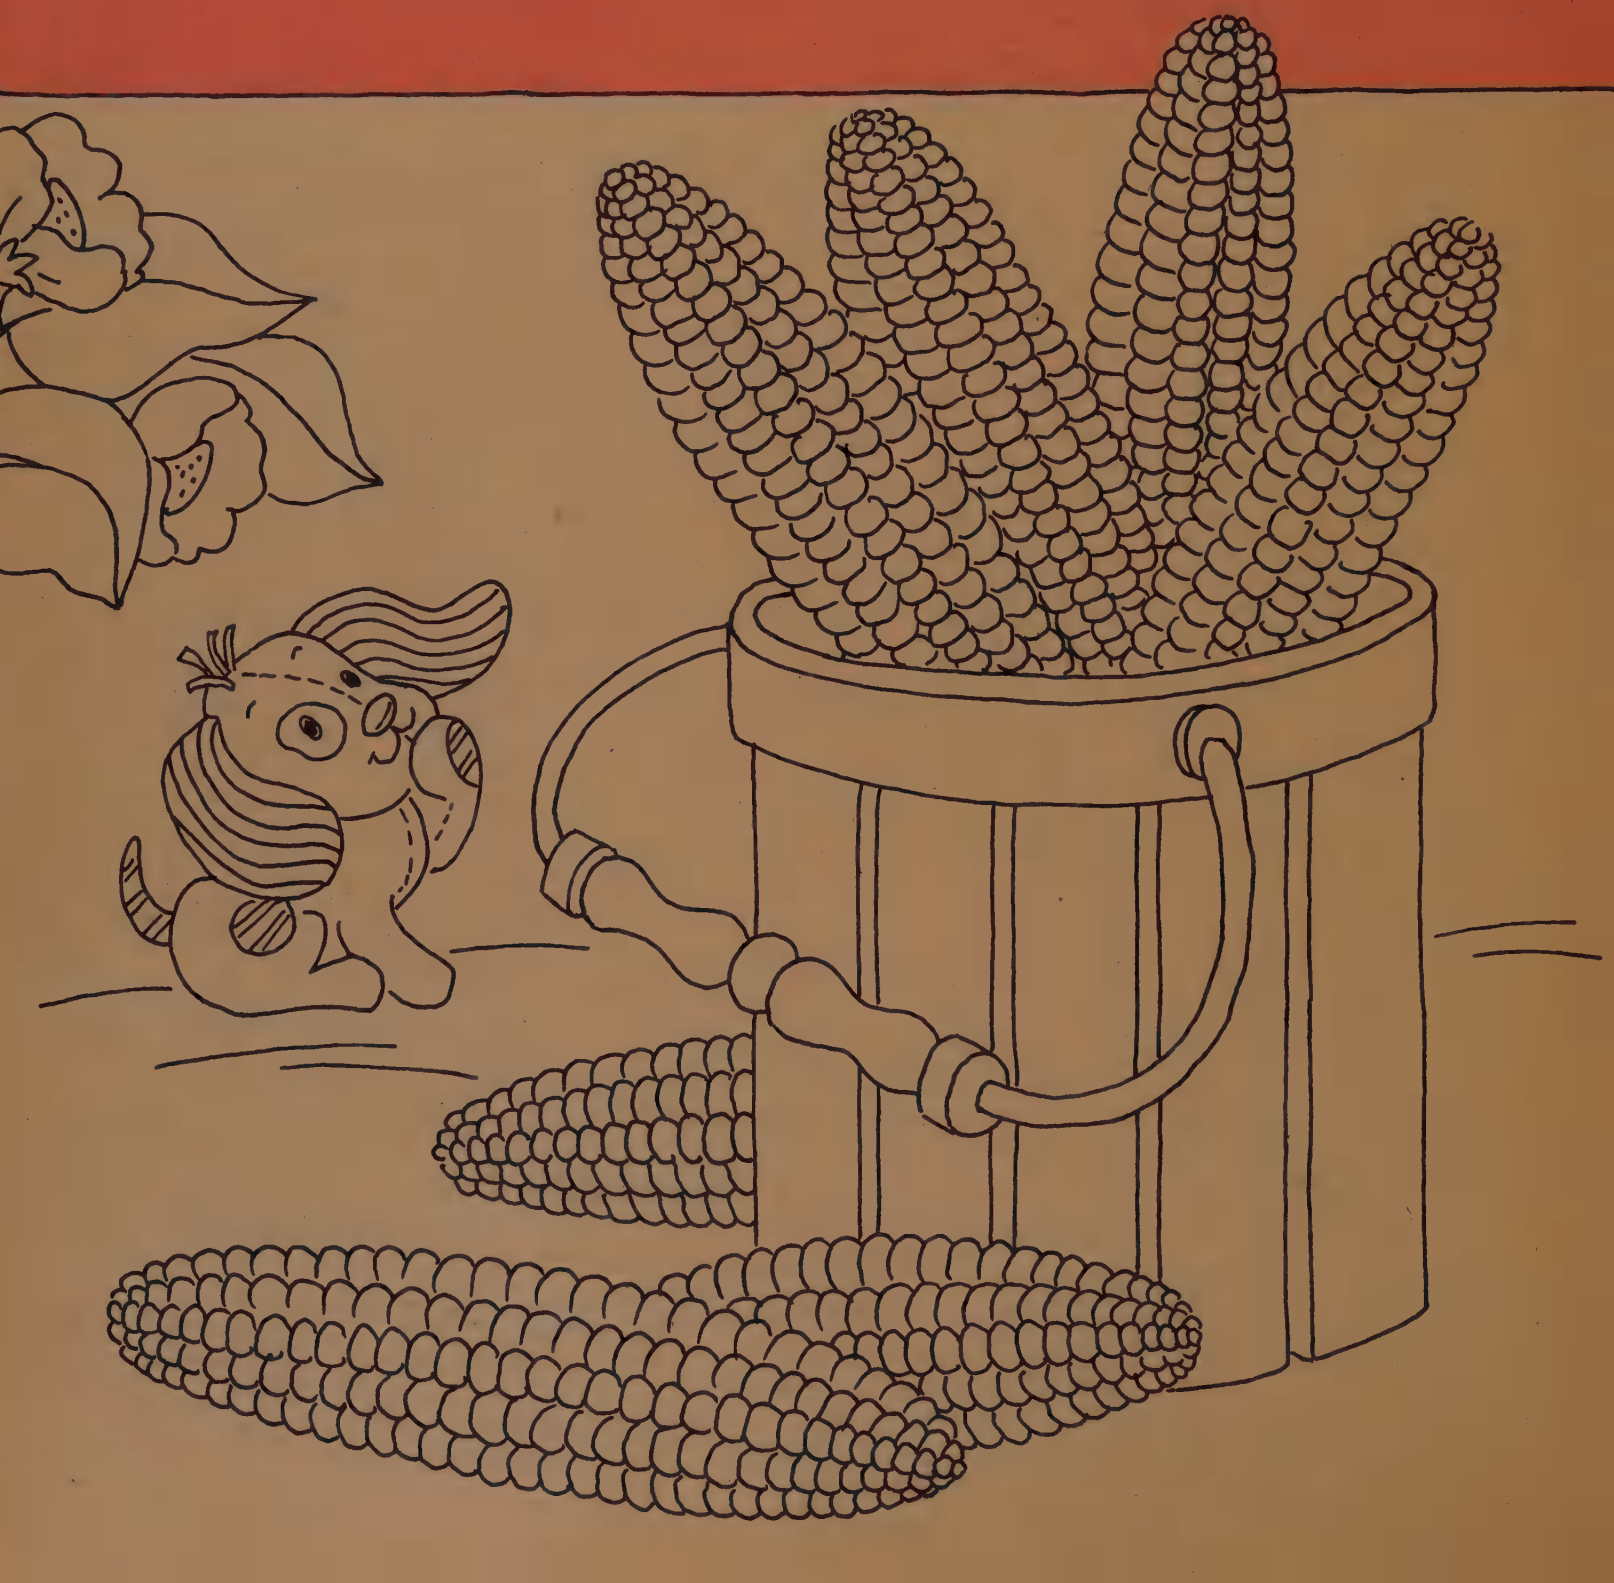
The big, sweet green peppers are ready to be picked.

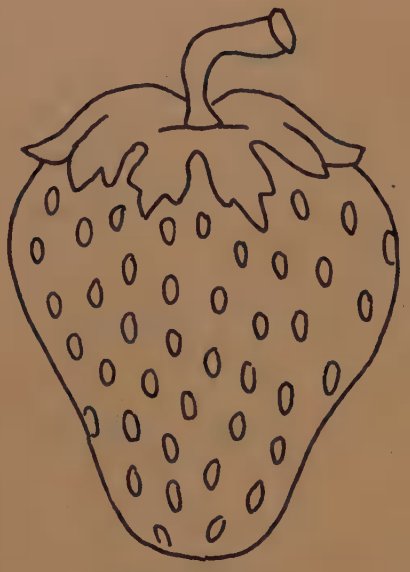
"A slice of green pepper looks like a flower!"
says Strawberry Shortcake.

"I wonder who picked all that corn," says Pupcake.

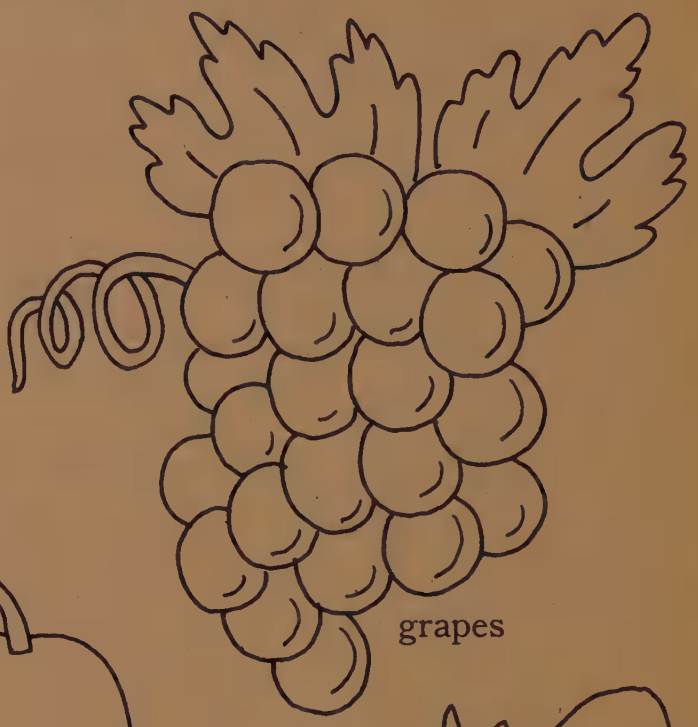


What a big apple! Strawberry Shortcake helps Huckleberry Pie carry it to the apple barrel.

Here are some fruits that grow in Strawberryland.



strawberry



grapes

pear

lemon cherries

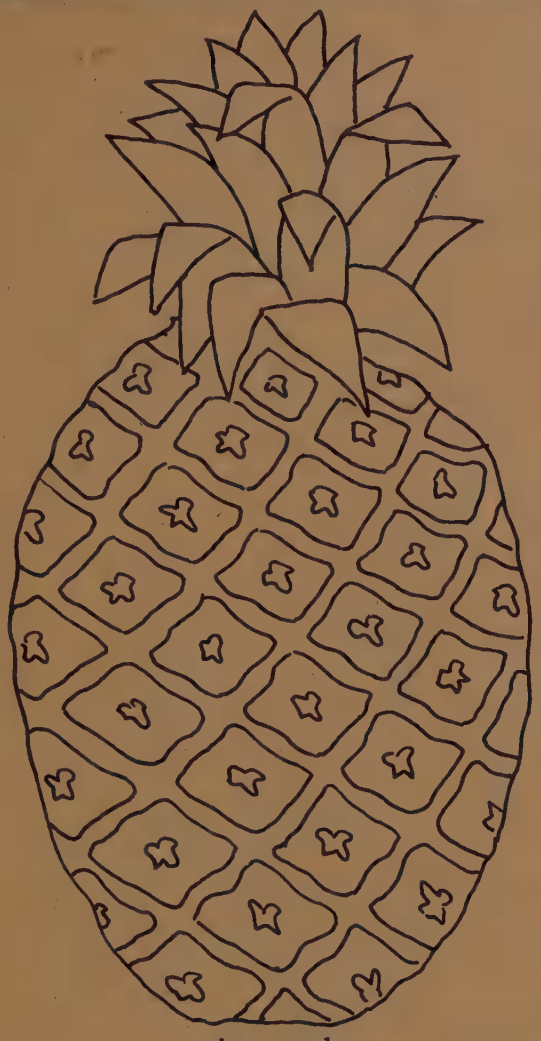
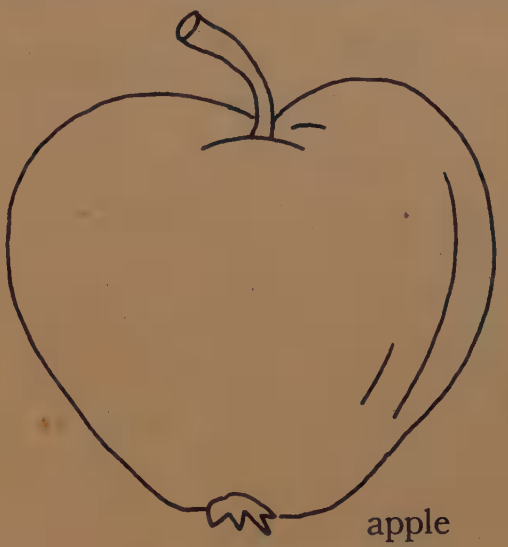
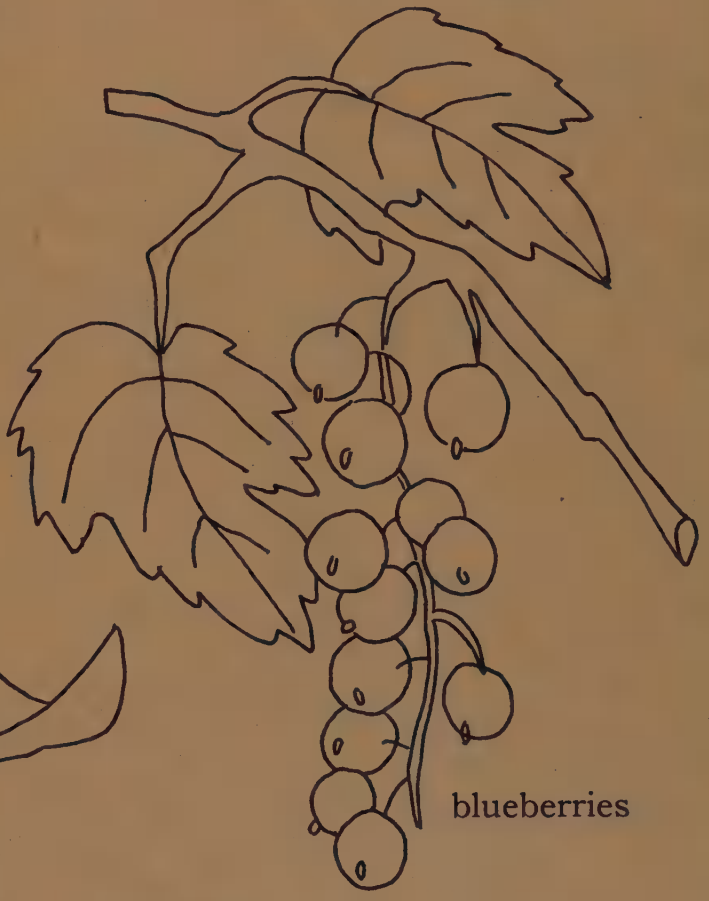
banana



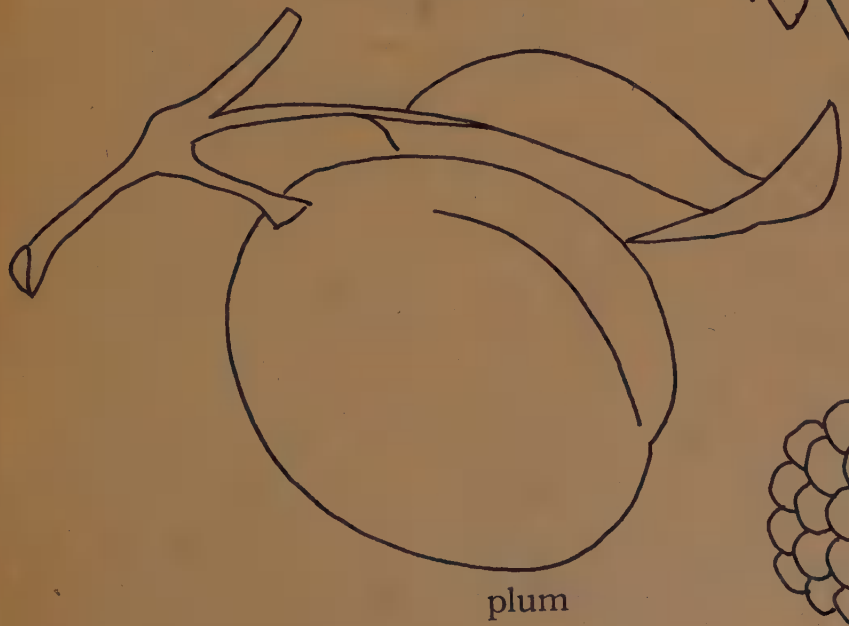
pineapple



apple

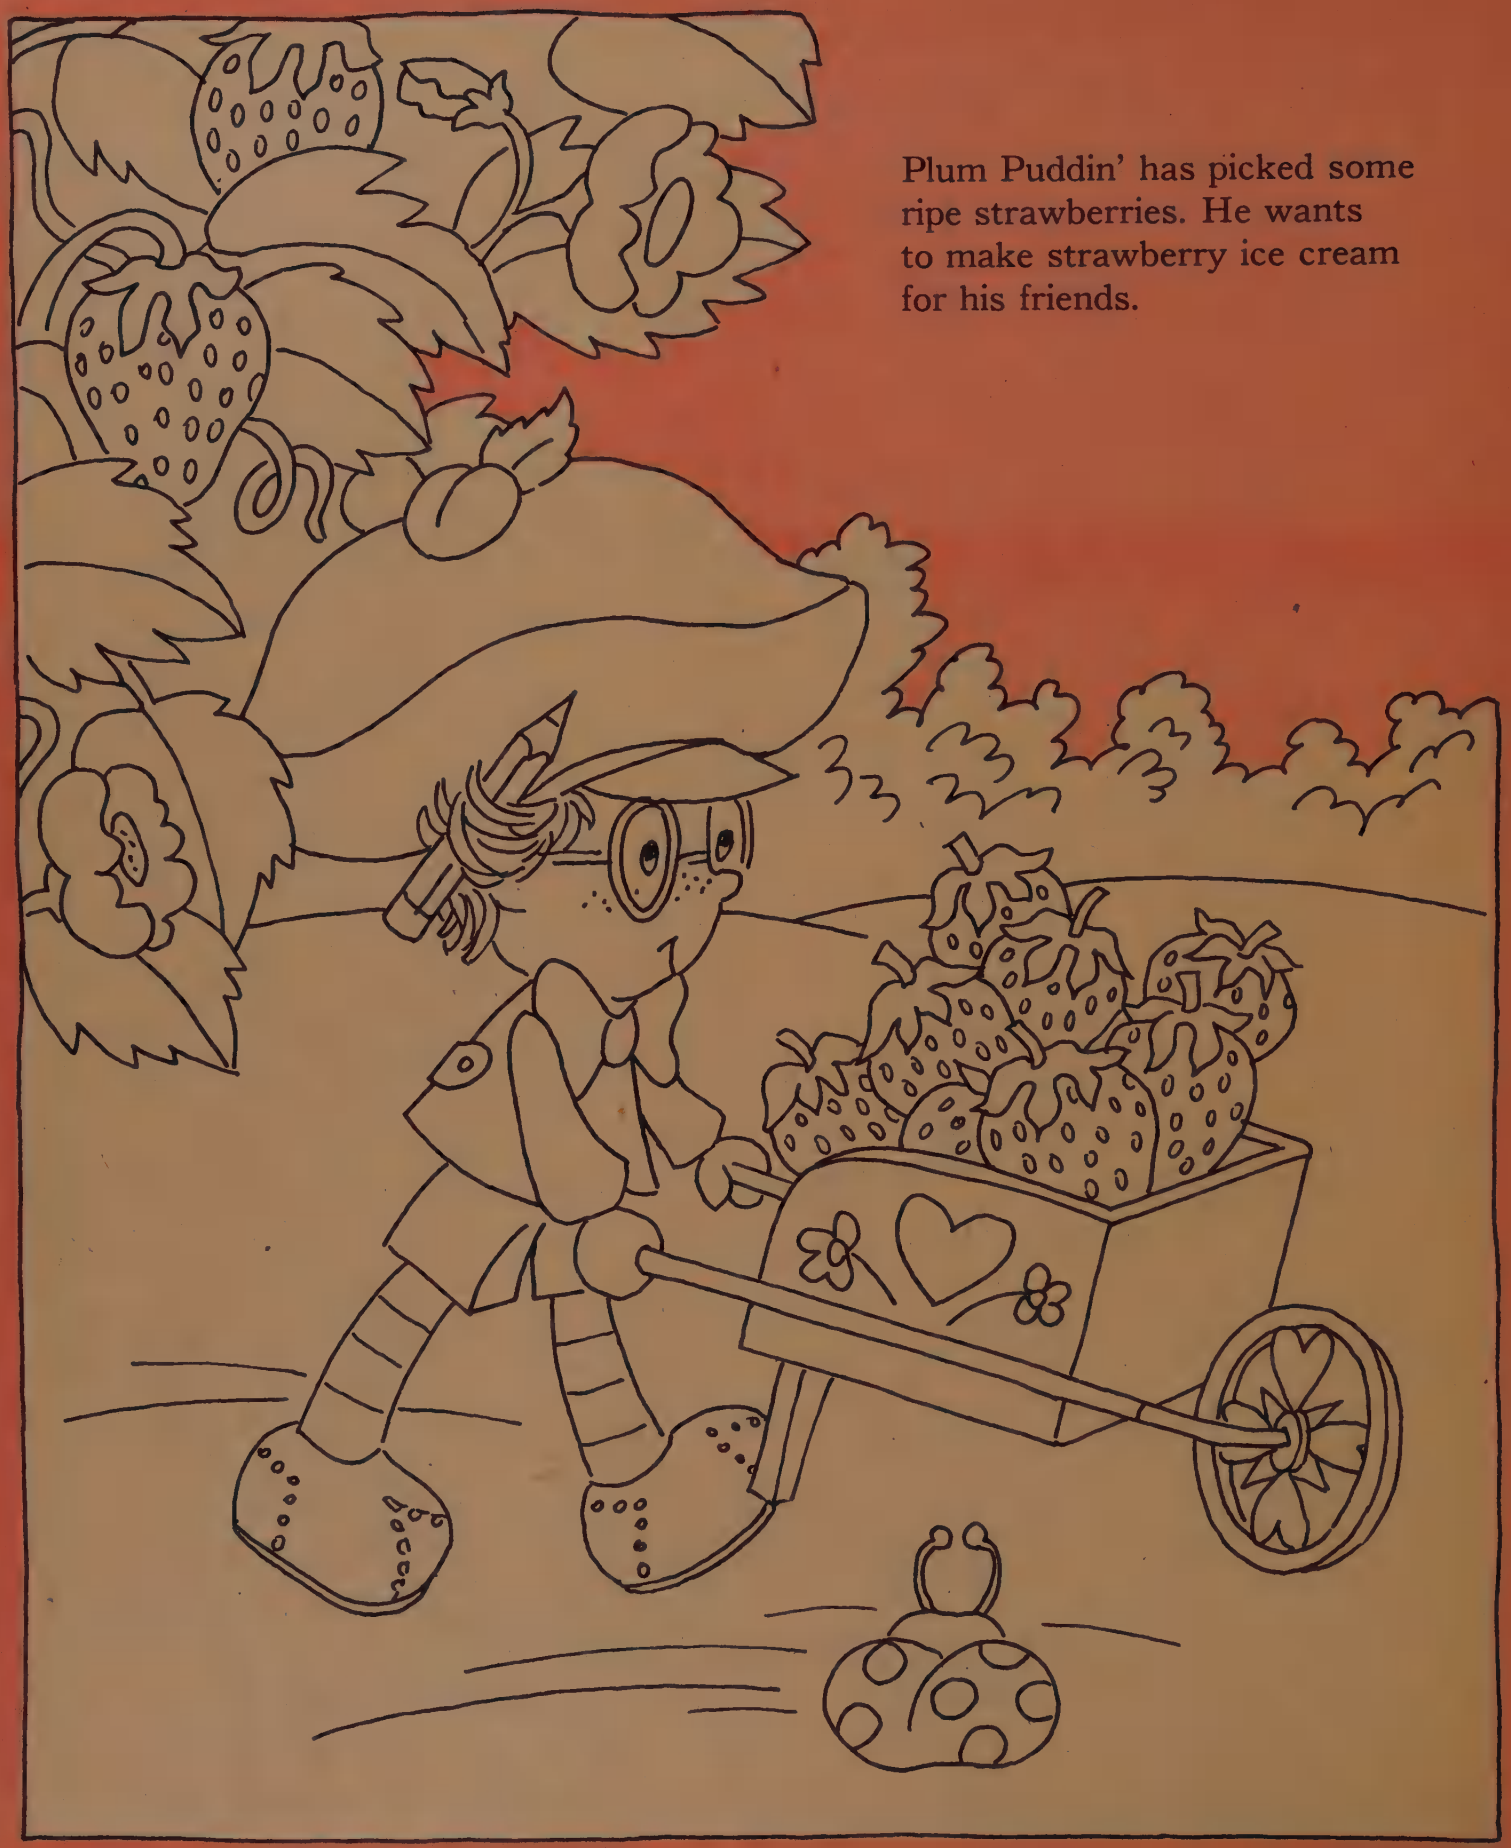


blueberries



plum

raspberry



Plum Puddin' has picked some ripe strawberries. He wants to make strawberry ice cream for his friends.

Lucky Bug loves juicy red strawberries, too.

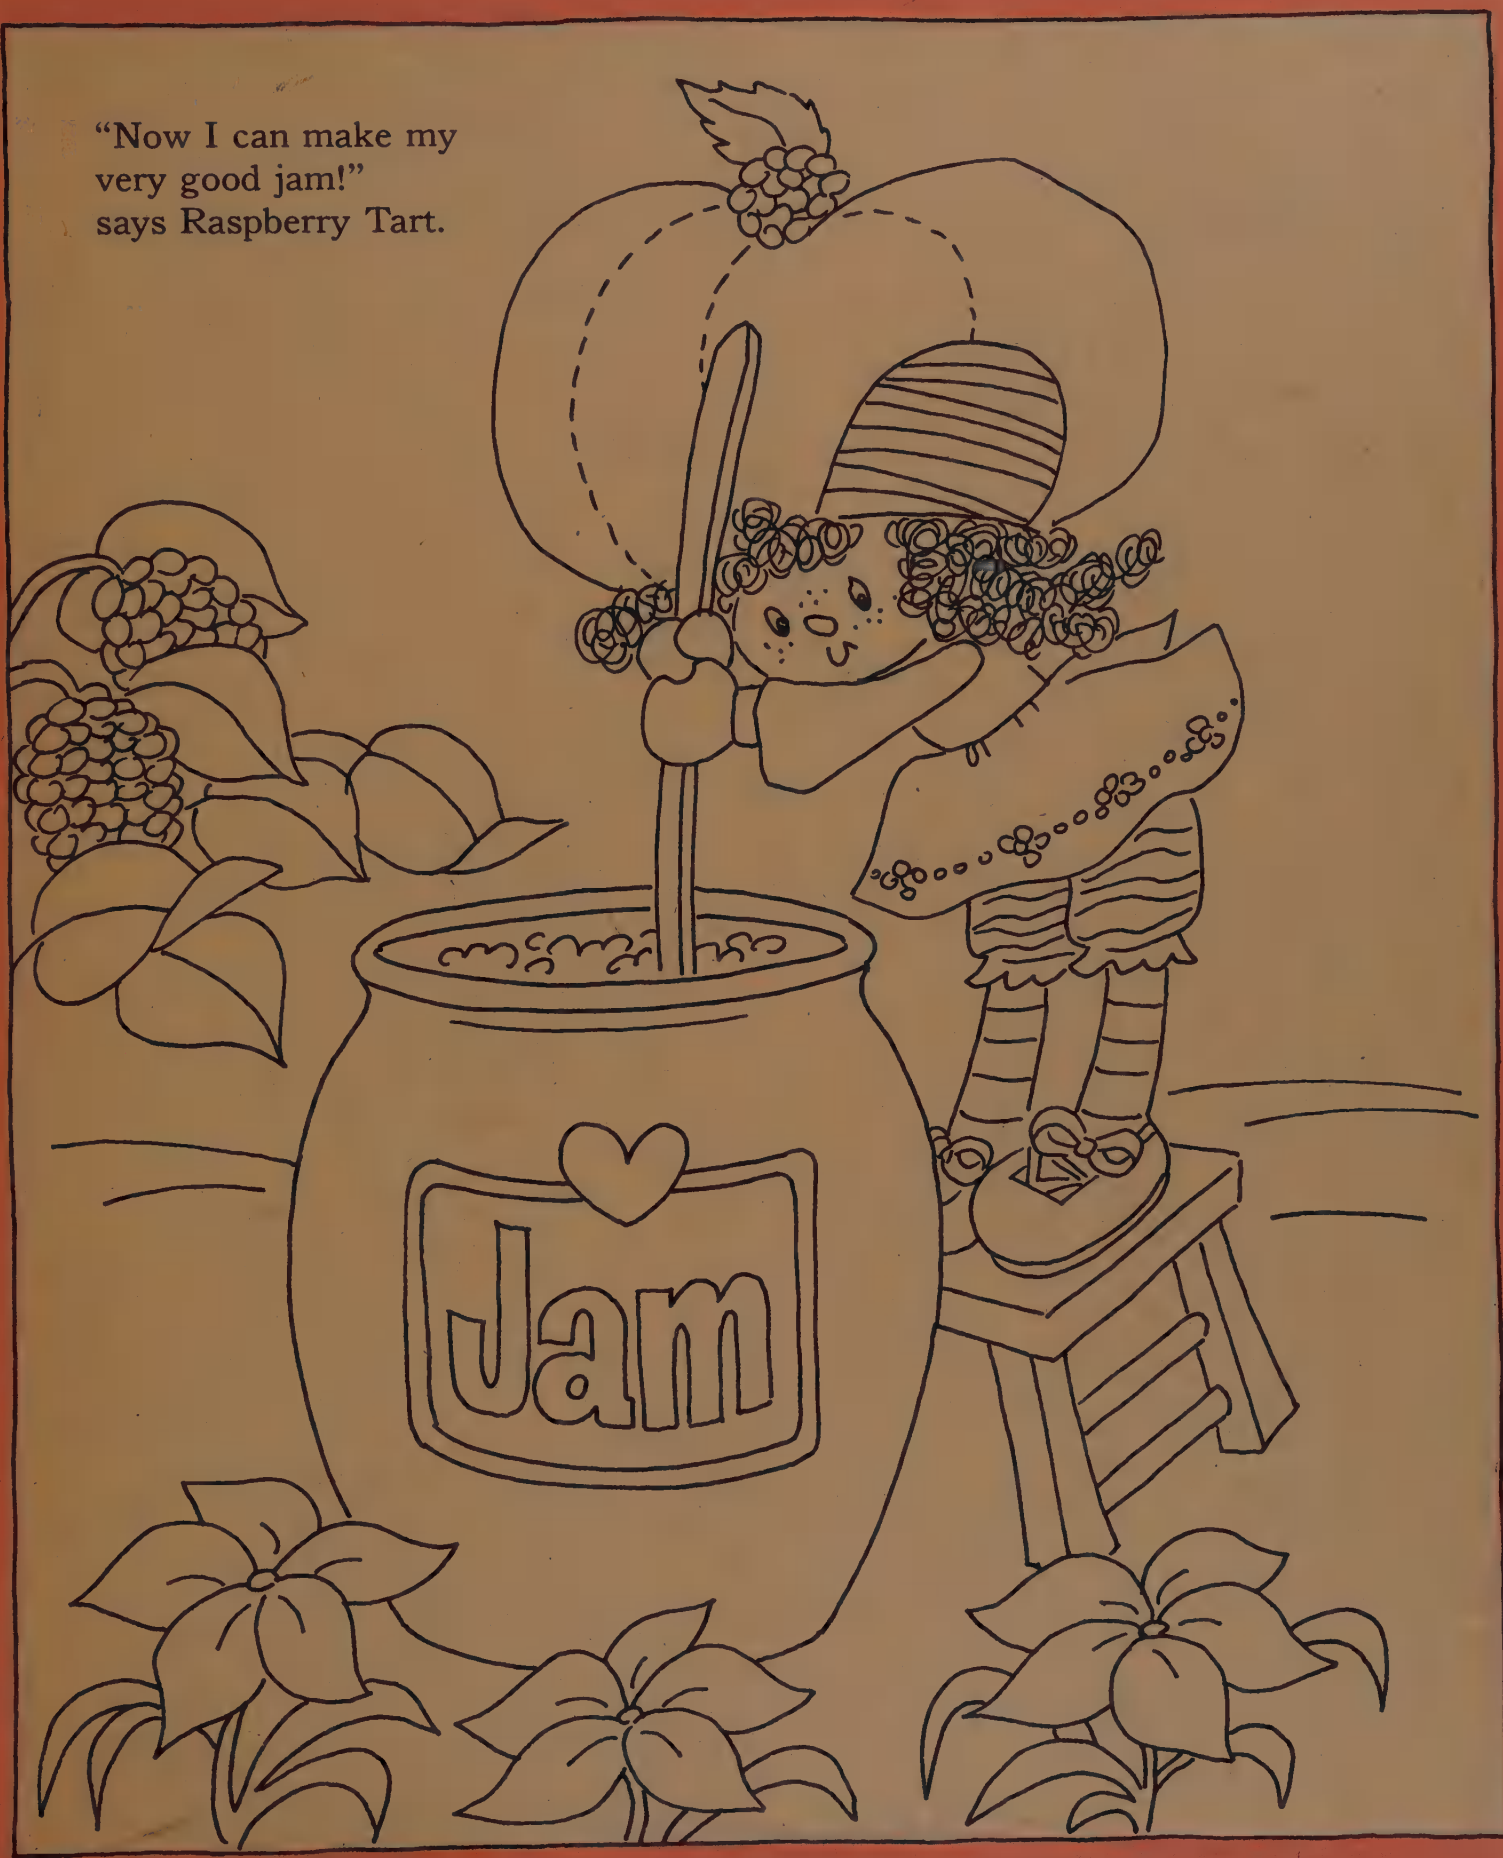
Plum Puddin' and Strawberry Shortcake are gathering ripe raspberries.

"Now I can make my very good jam!" says Raspberry Tart.



Wild blueberries grow on bushes all over Strawberryland.
"My basket is full!" says Strawberry Shortcake.

Plum Puddin' brings lots of blueberries into the kitchen.

Raspberry Tart washes the fresh blueberries.
"Let's make blueberry muffins!" she says.

Huckleberry Pie pours flour into the muffin mix.

Plum Puddin' adds milk to the mixing bowl.

Strawberry Shortcake mixes everything together with a big spoon.

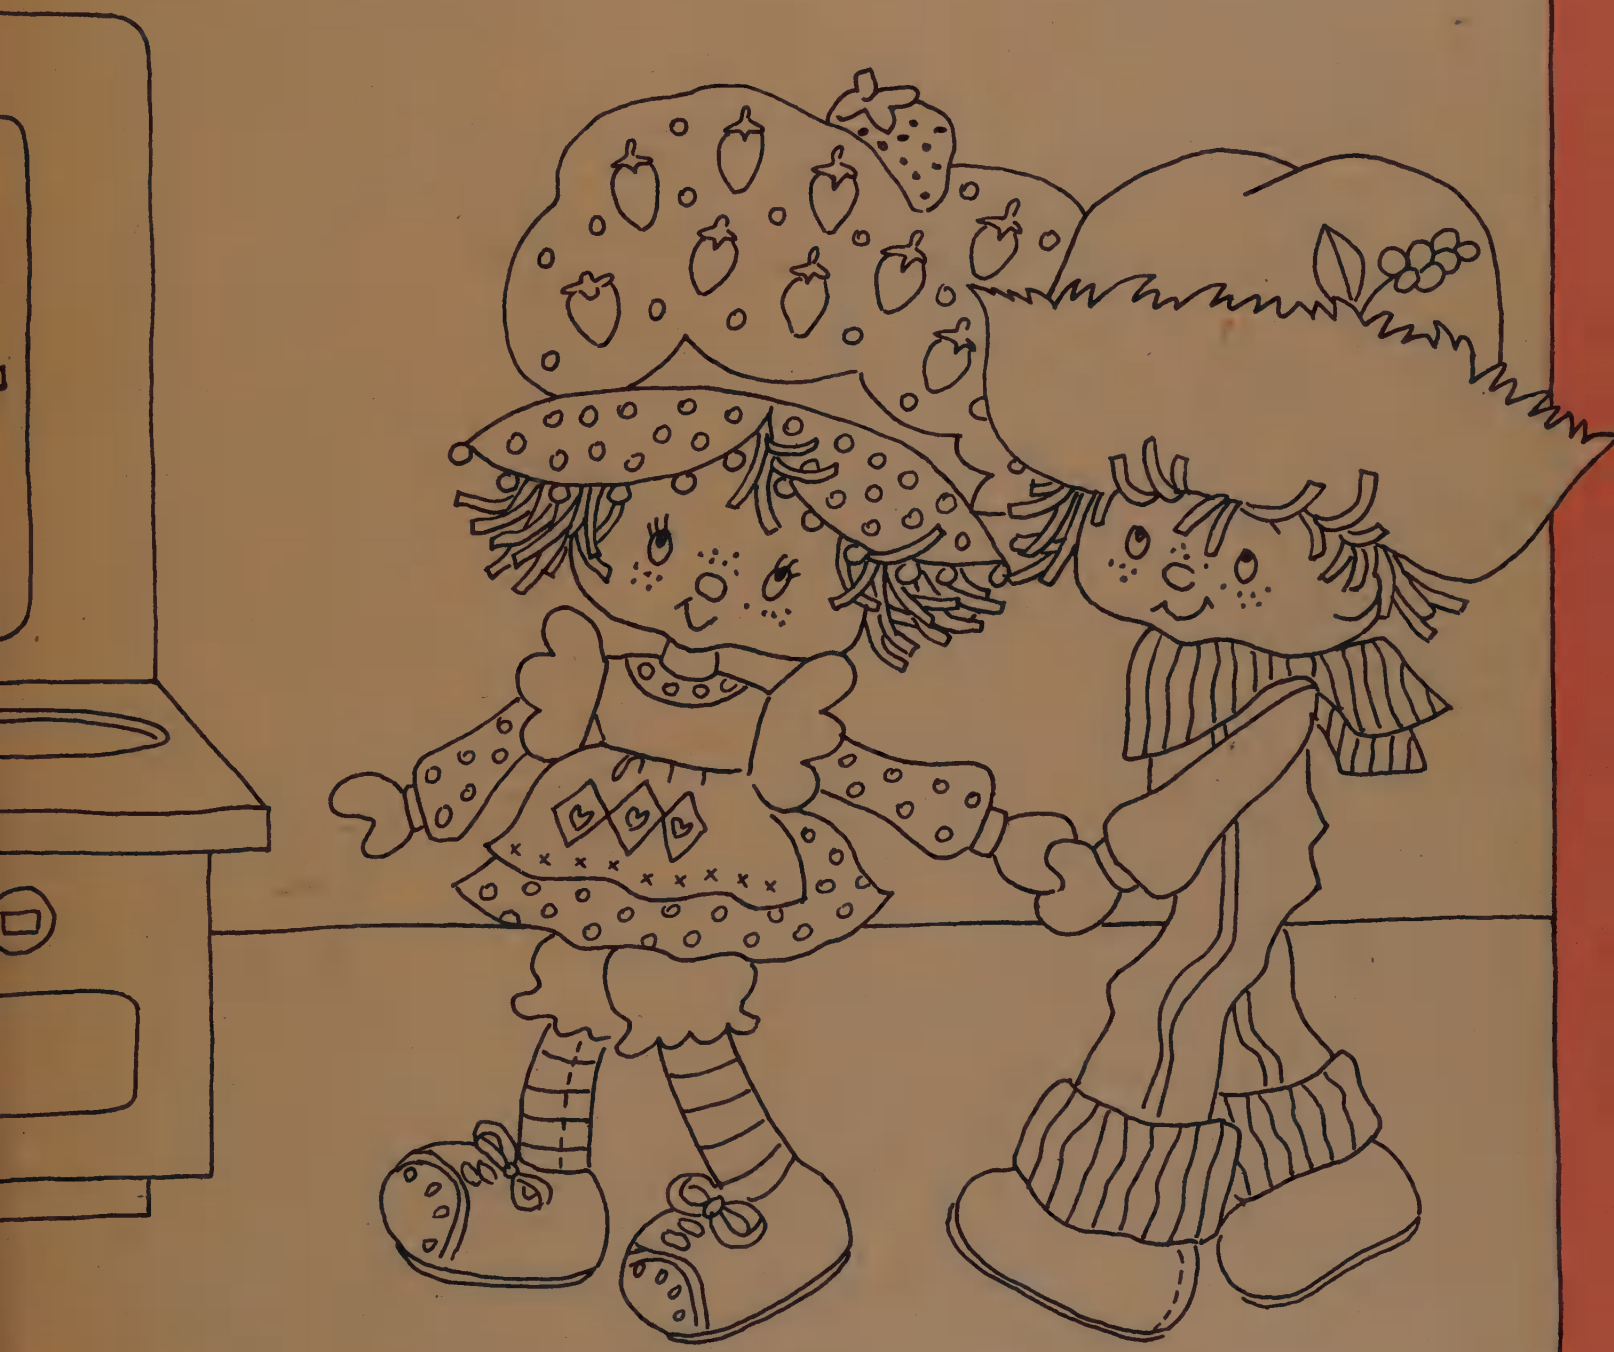
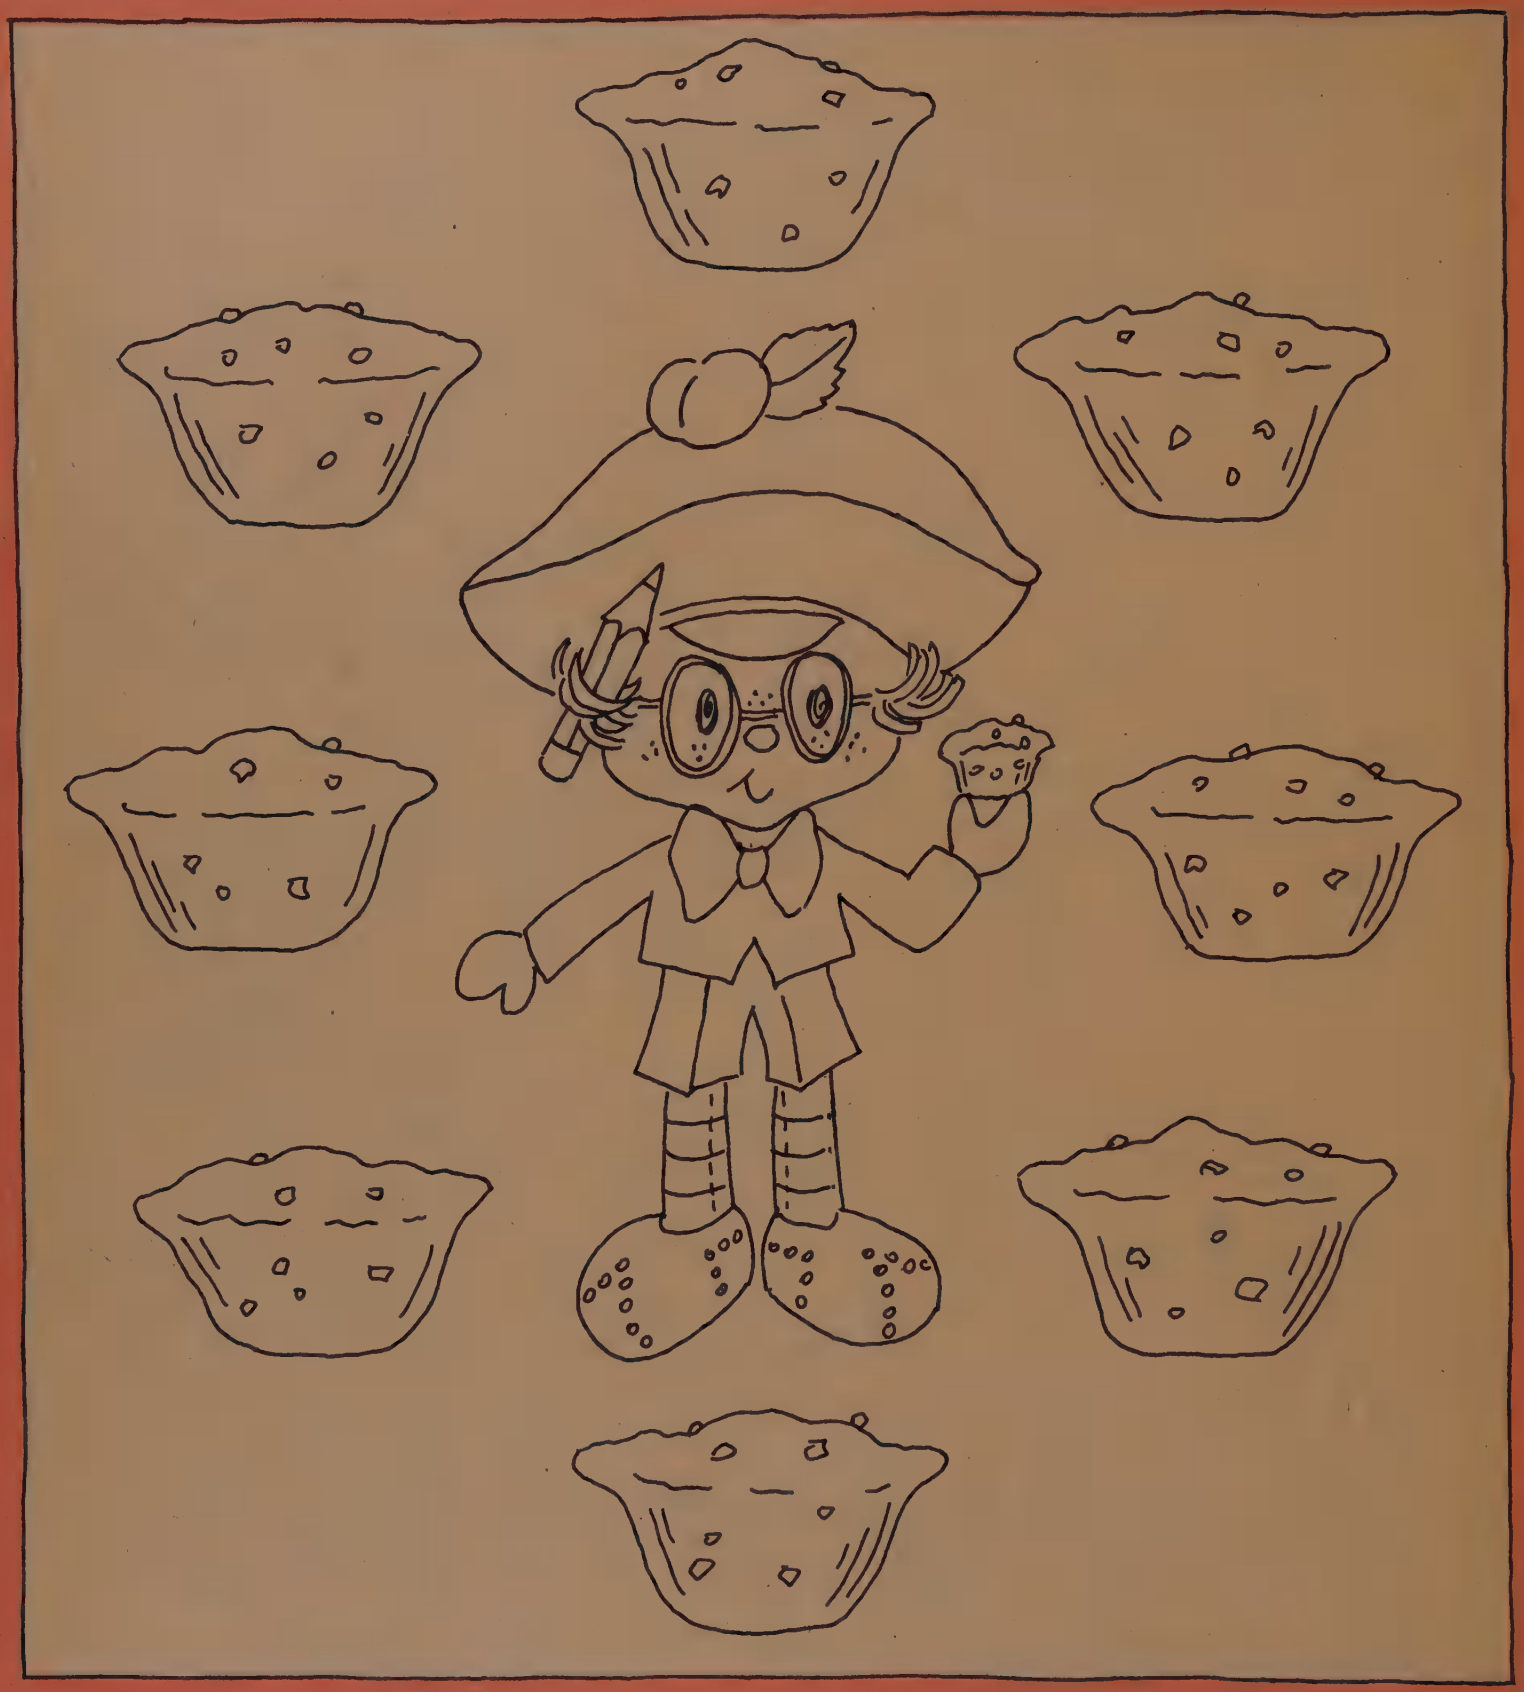
The muffins are ready! Blueberry takes them out of the oven. "Don't they smell good?" she says.





"Here they are!" says Plum Puddin'.
"Fresh blueberry muffins–for everyone!"

The Strawberry Kids are playing blind man's bluff.
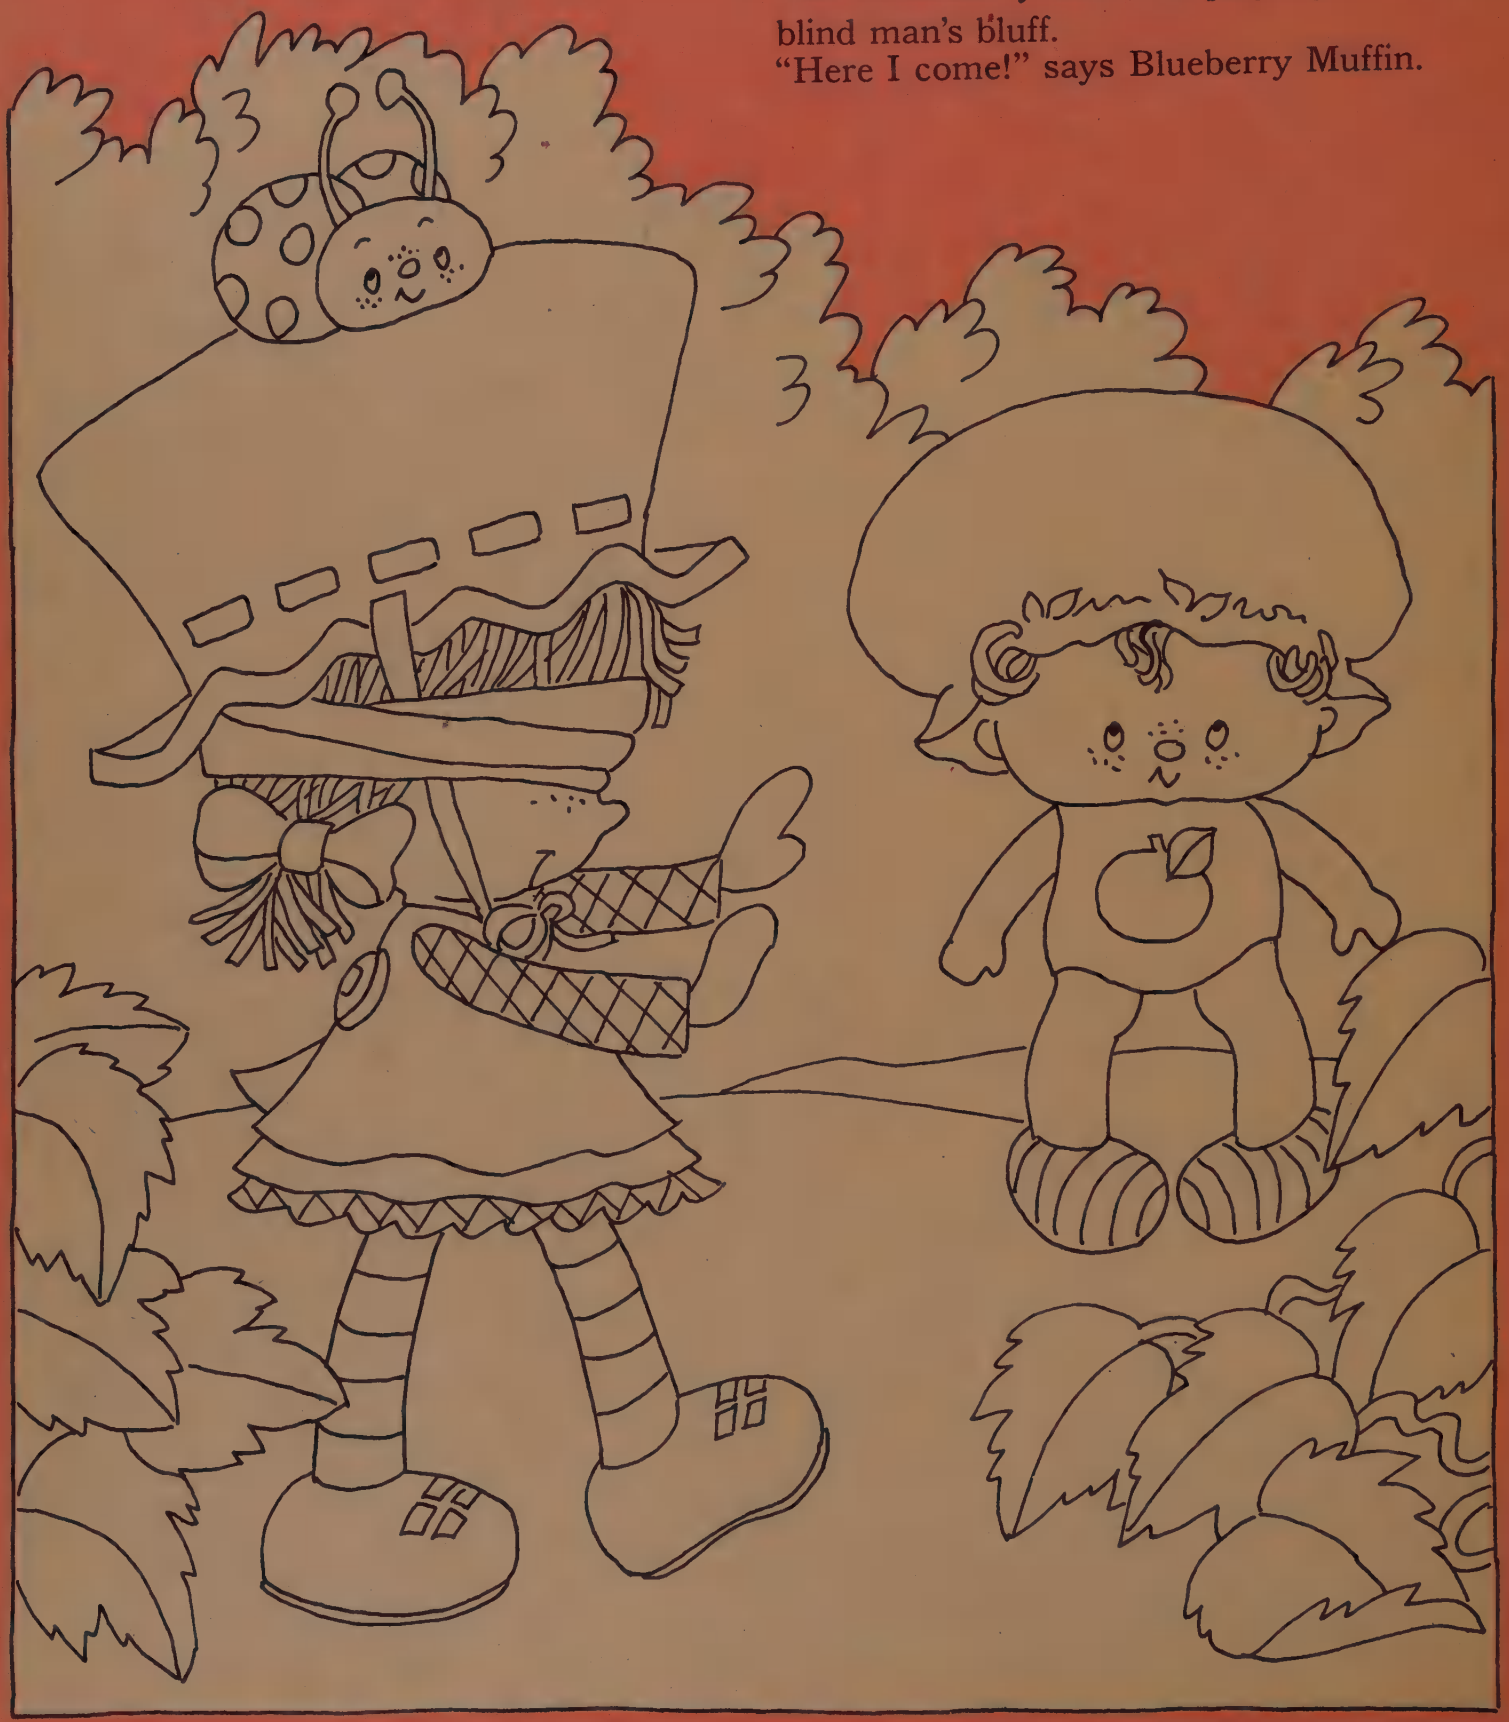
"Here I come!" says Blueberry Muffin.



"You can't find me!" says Strawberry Shortcake with a giggle.

The Strawberry Kids know how to play Simon Says, too.
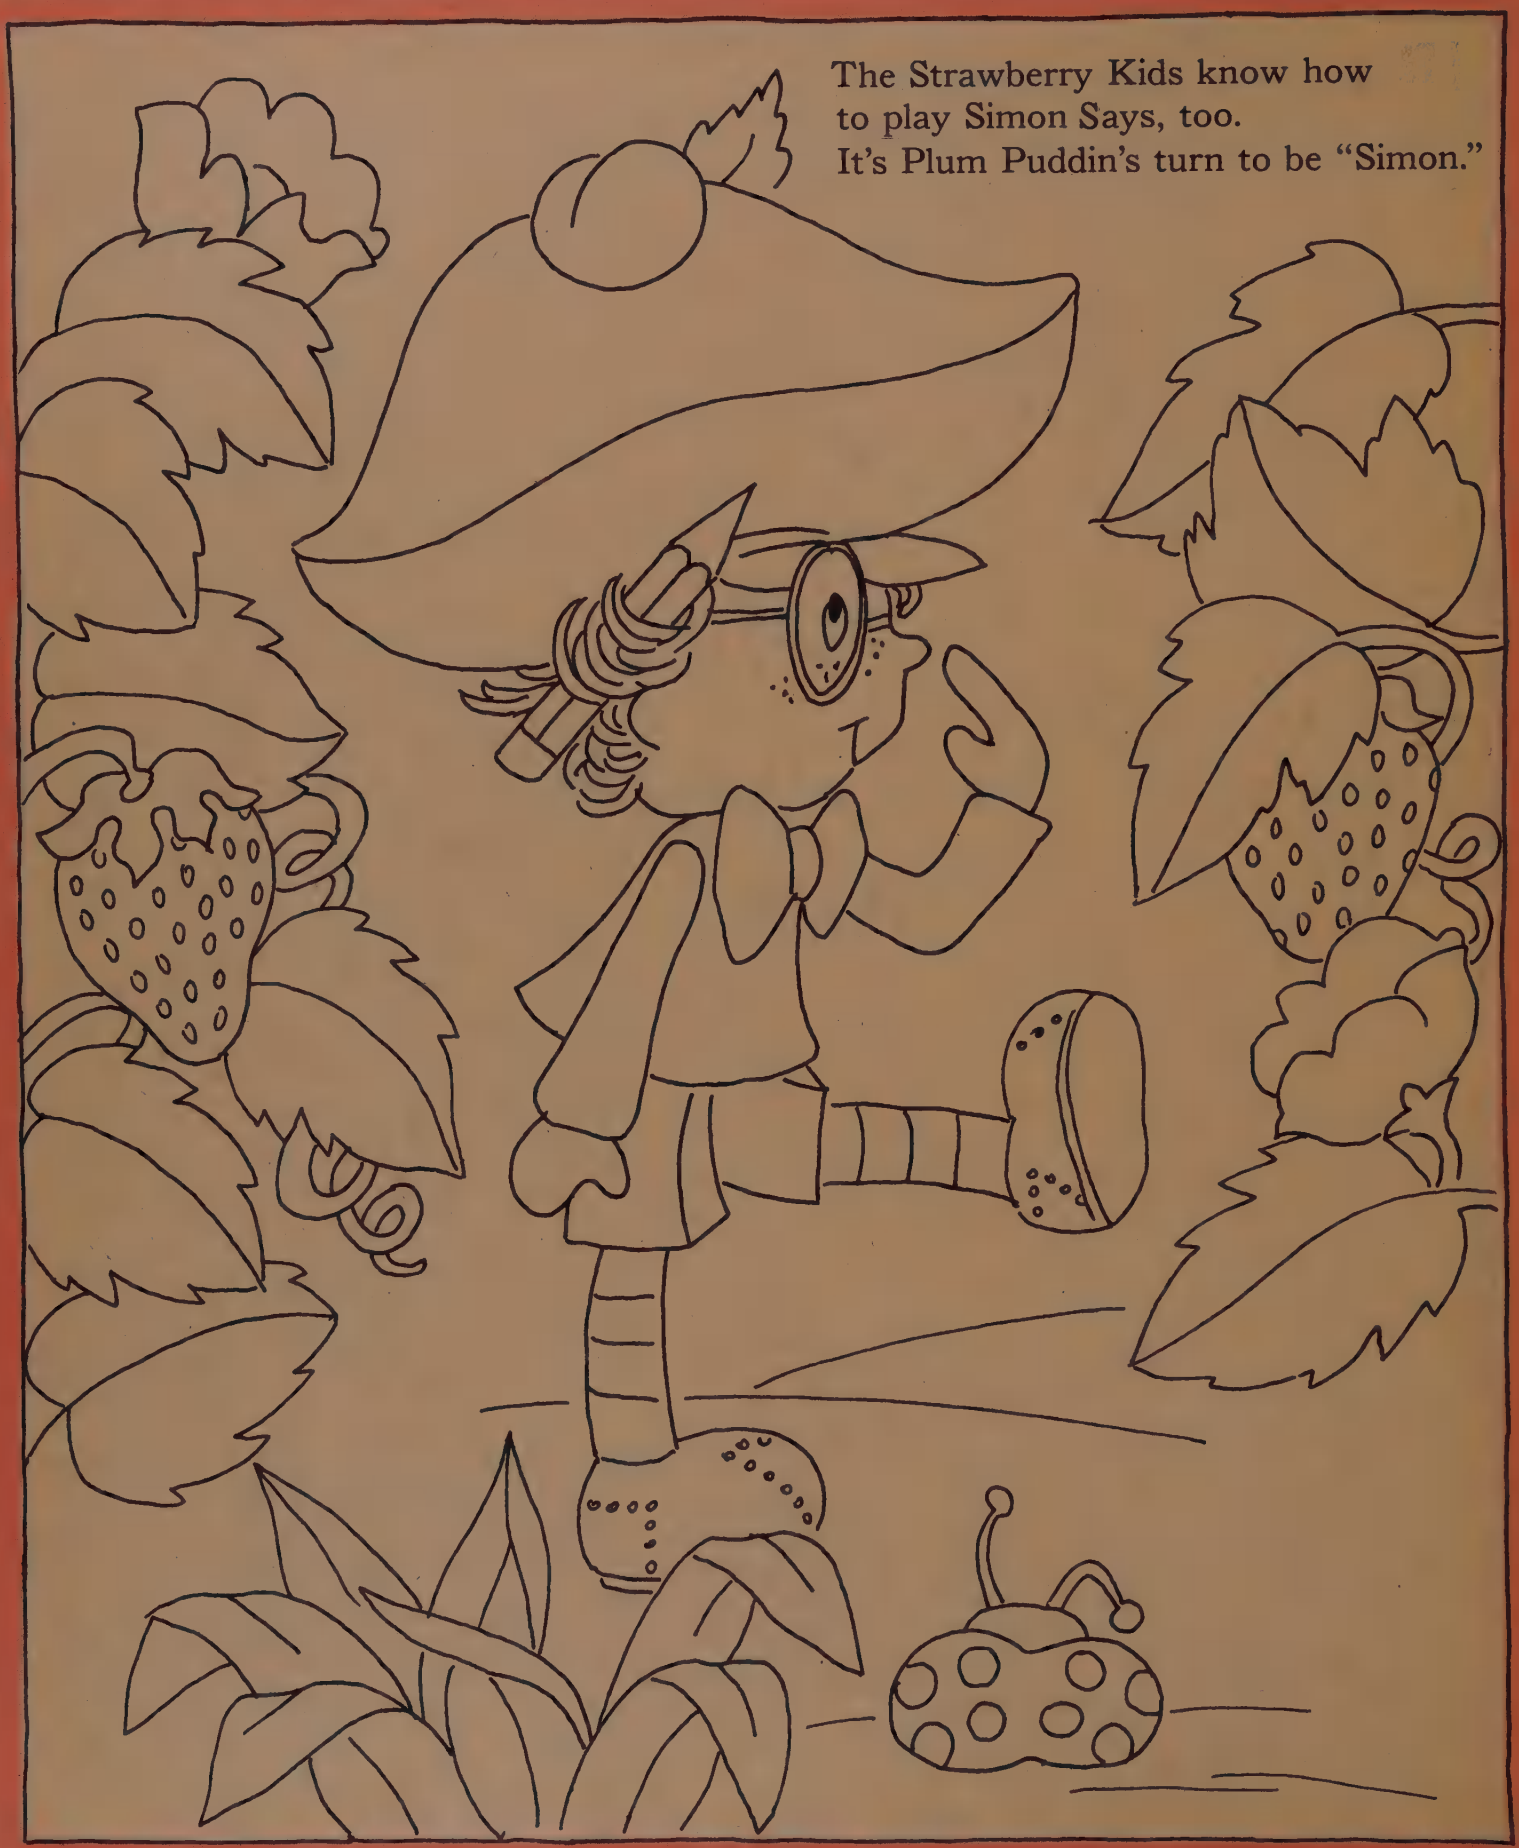
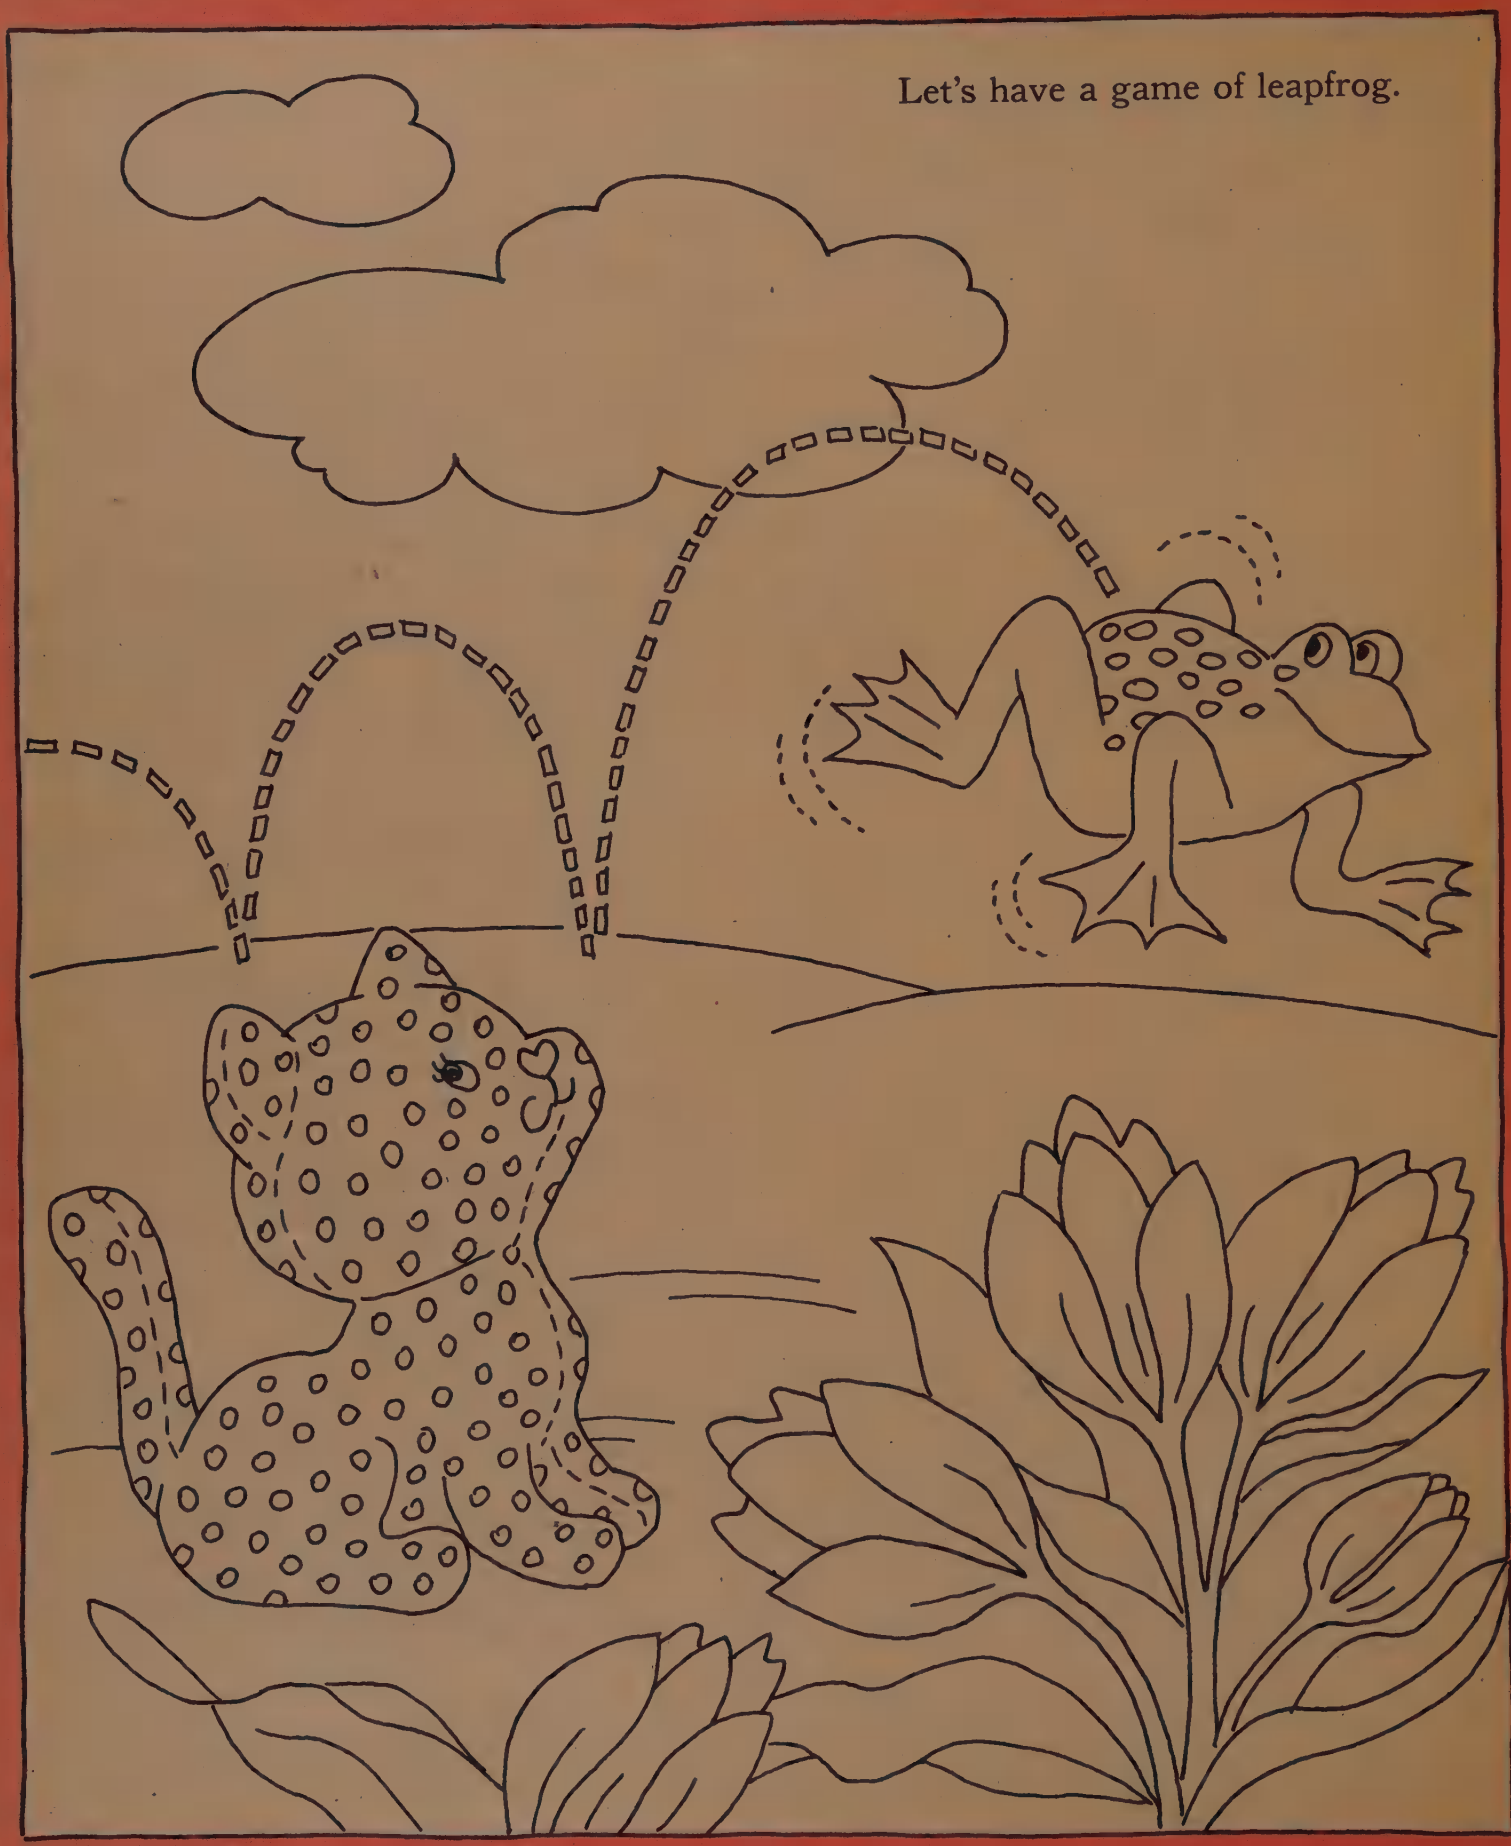
It's Plum Puddin's turn to be "Simon."



Let's have a game of leapfrog.



Slow down, Mister Frog! Pupcake and Custard want to play leapfrog, too.

Hide-and-seek is fun! Lucky Bug is the one who is hard to find.
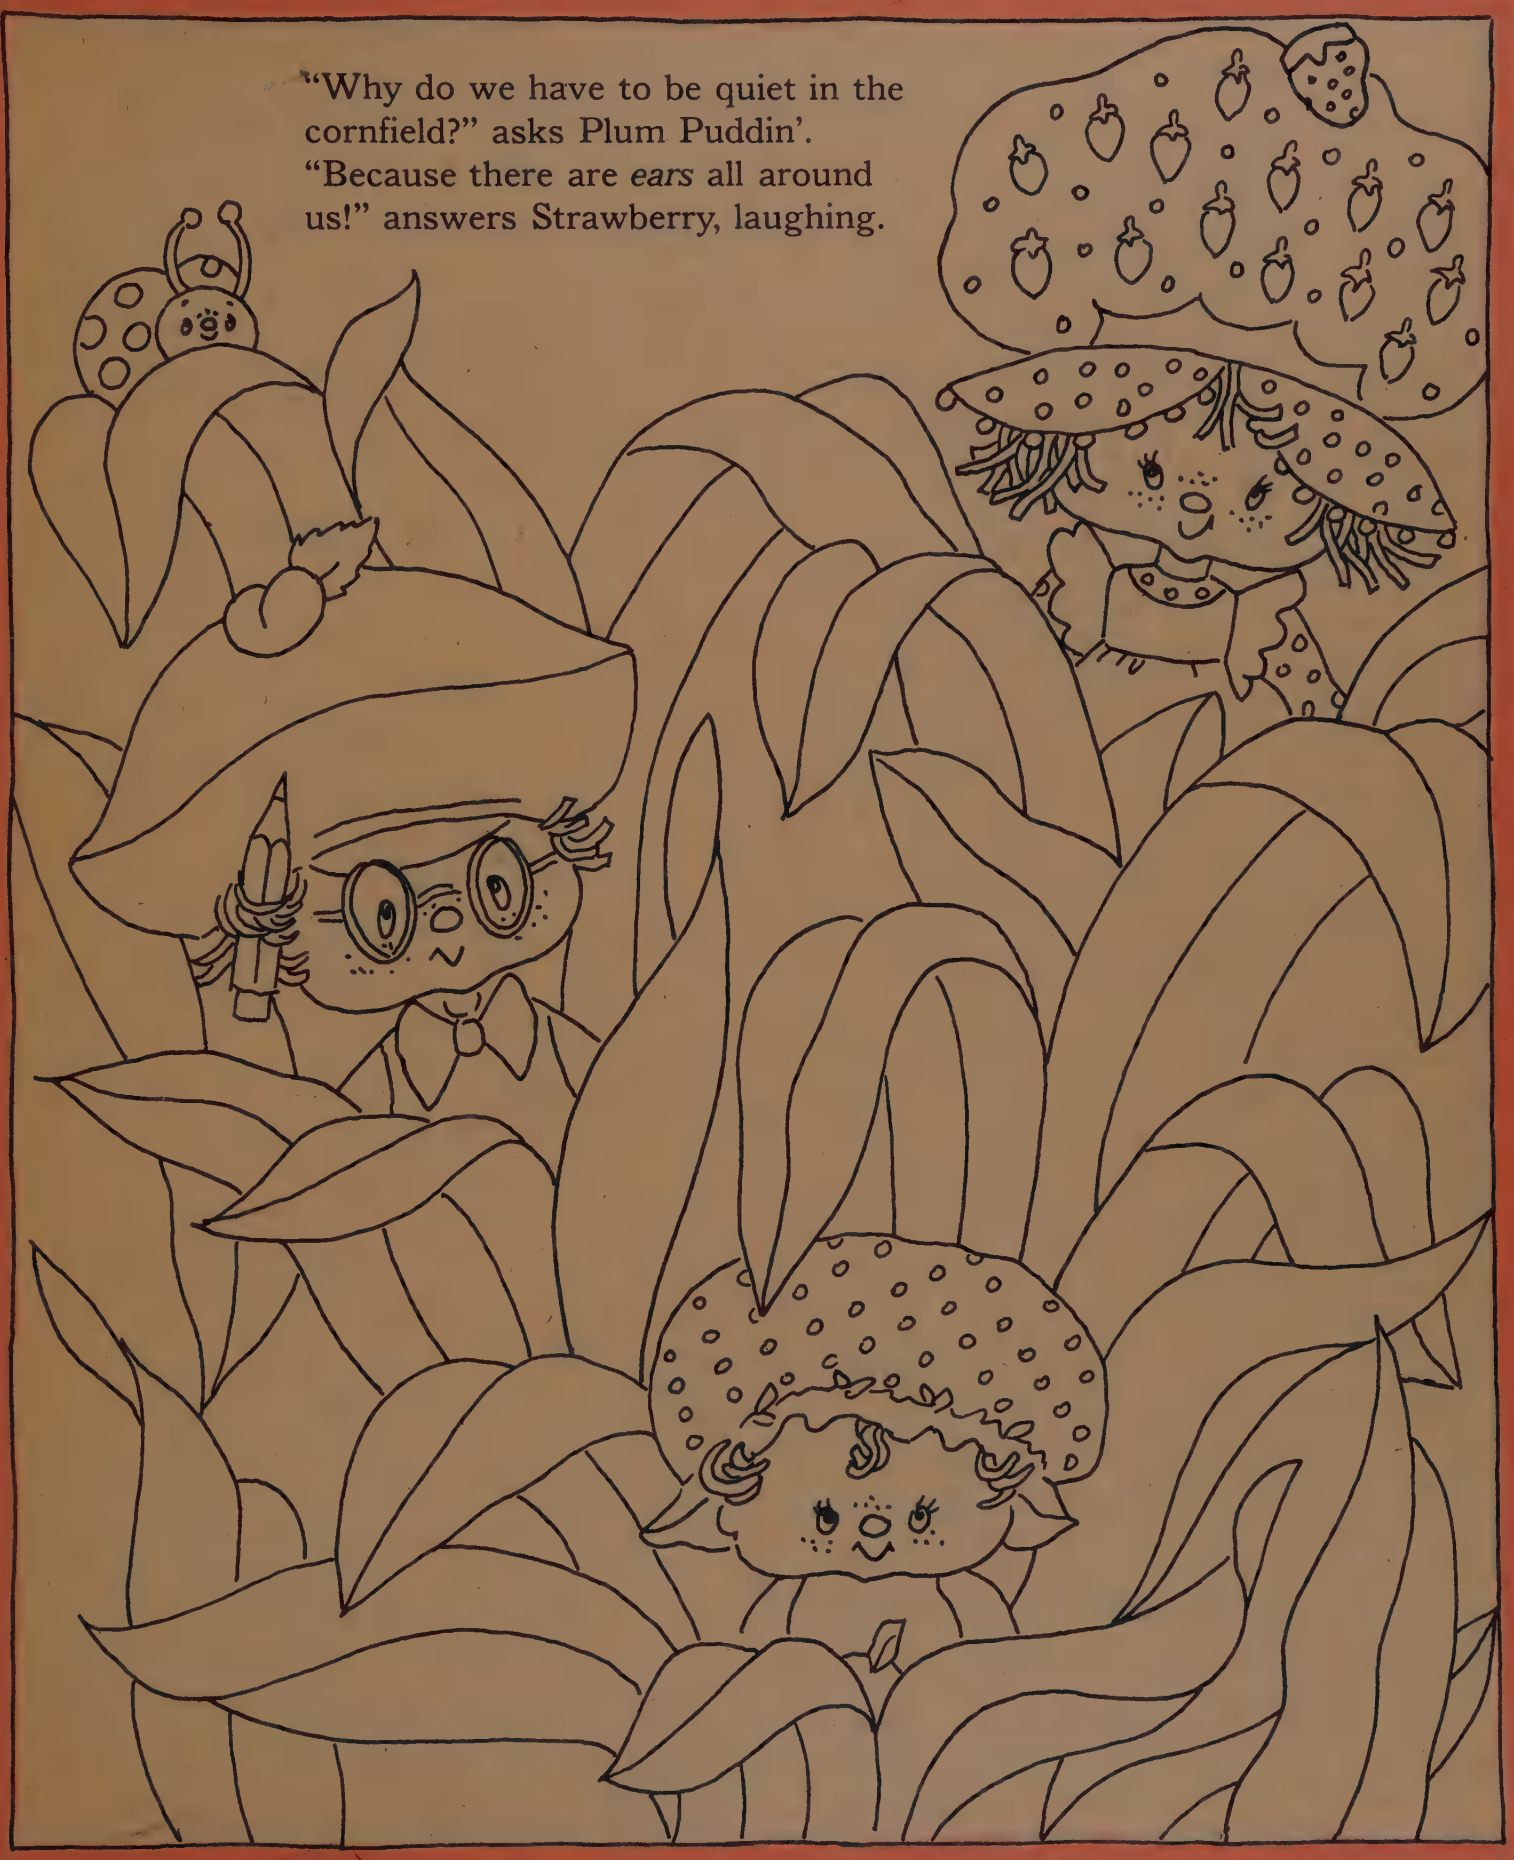
She is very small!



"Why do we have to be quiet in the cornfield?" asks Plum Puddin'. "Because there are ears all around us!" answers Strawberry, laughing.

The Strawberry Kids sniff the beautiful flowers.
"Lilies of the valley smell very sweet!"
says Blueberry Muffin.

"I can swing from the branch!"
says Strawberry Shortcake.

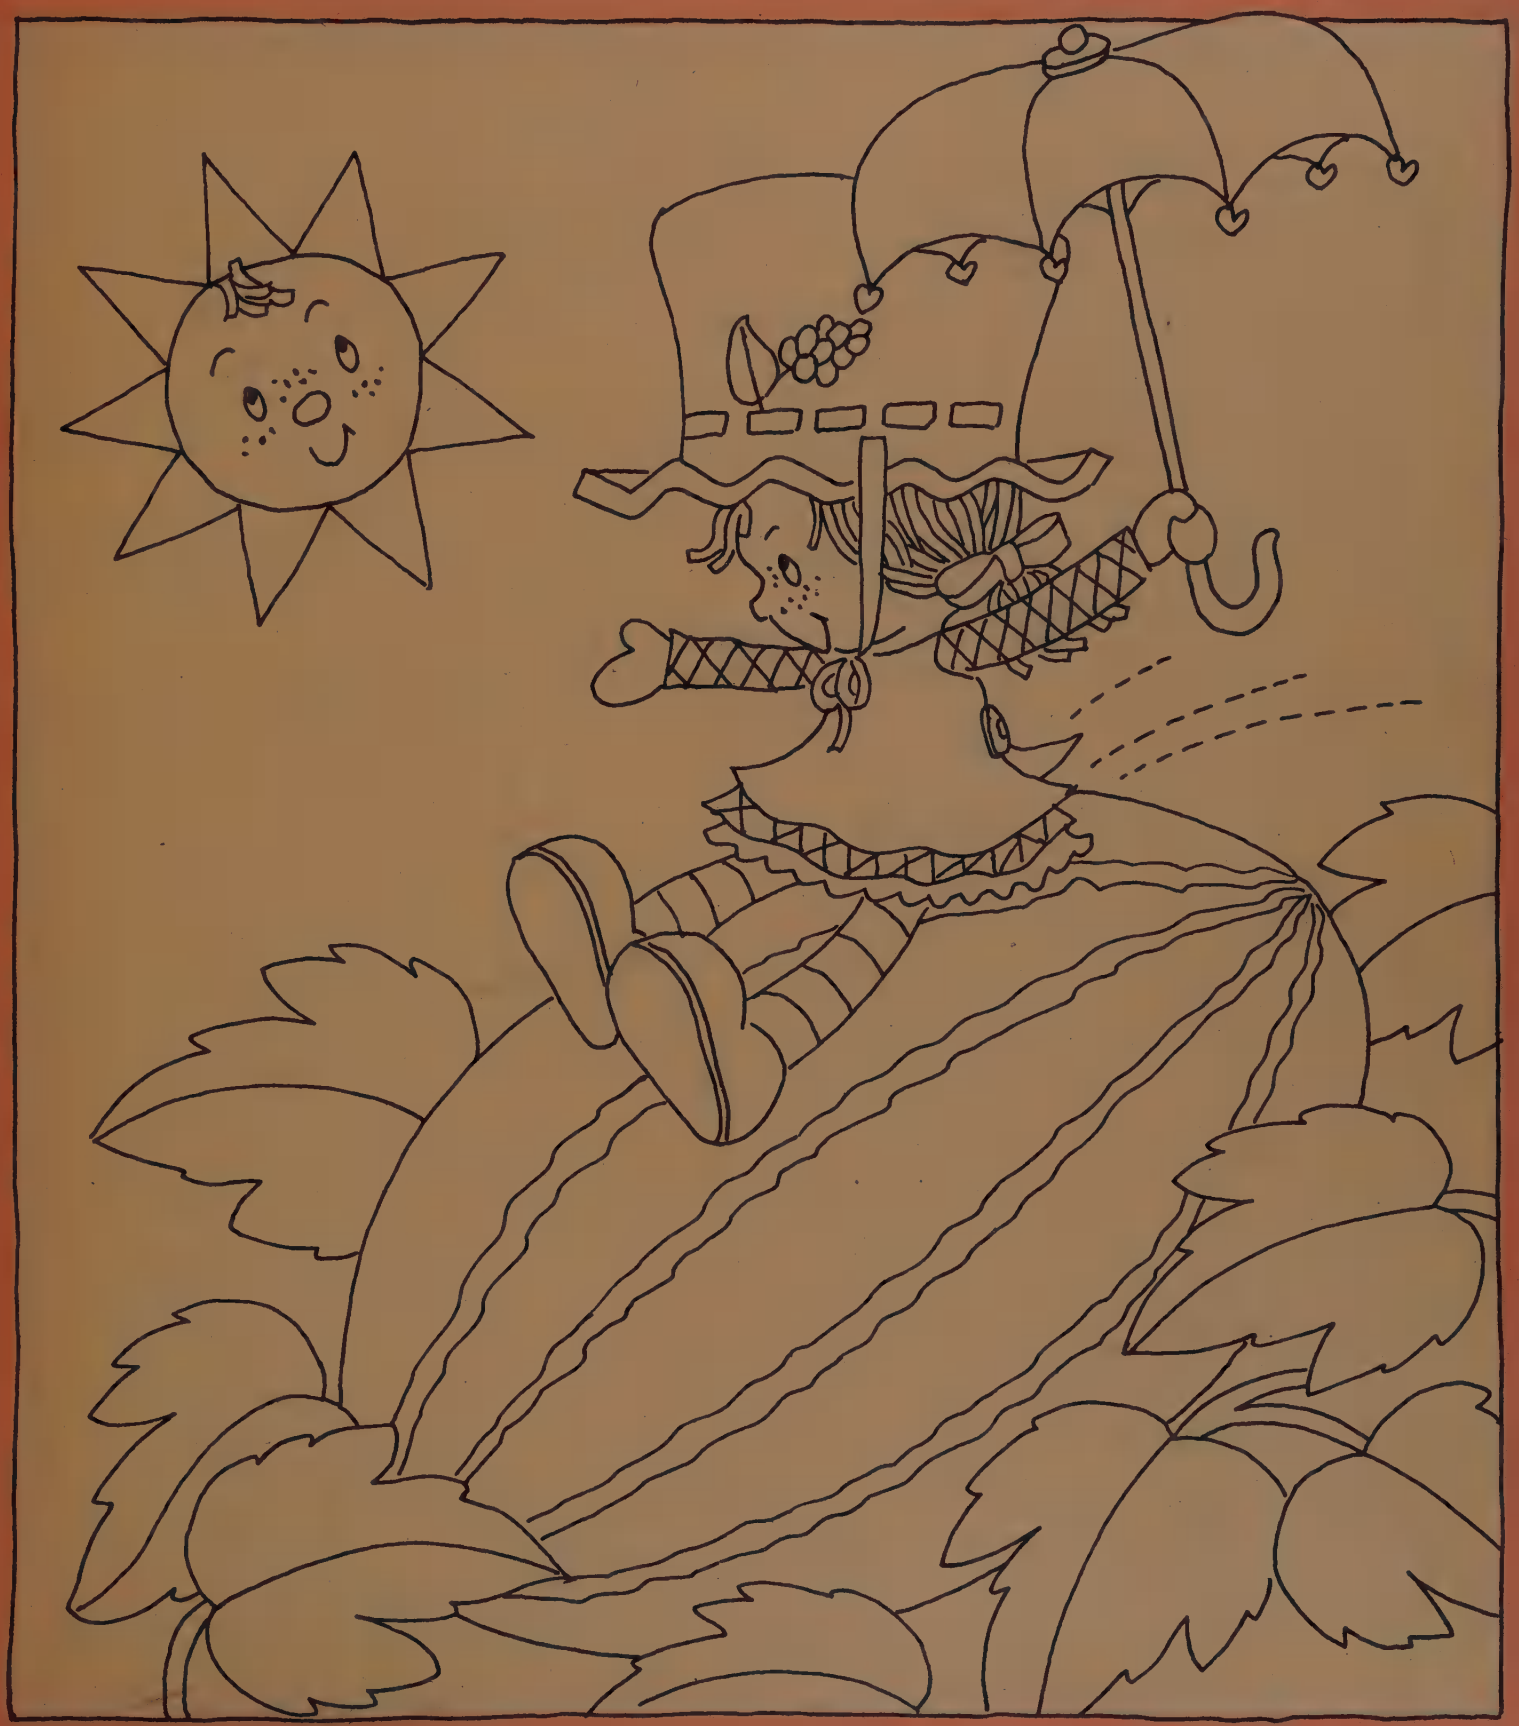
Who can climb the highest?

"I'm sliding down!" says Strawberry Shortcake.

Raspberry Tart climbs up on the fence so that she can sniff one of her favorite flowers—a carnation.

Huckleberry Pie can swing from the watermelon vines like a monkey.

"Watermelons are slippery!" says
Blueberry Muffin. "Wheeee!"



The Strawberry Kids decide to have a picnic. Strawberry Shortcake is bringing one big carrot and a ripe strawberry.

Huckleberry Pie is bringing an onion to use for the picnic.

"Who will wash all these vegetables?" Custard asks.

Here are some other good things for a picnic lunch—hard-boiled eggs, honey, bread, and butter.

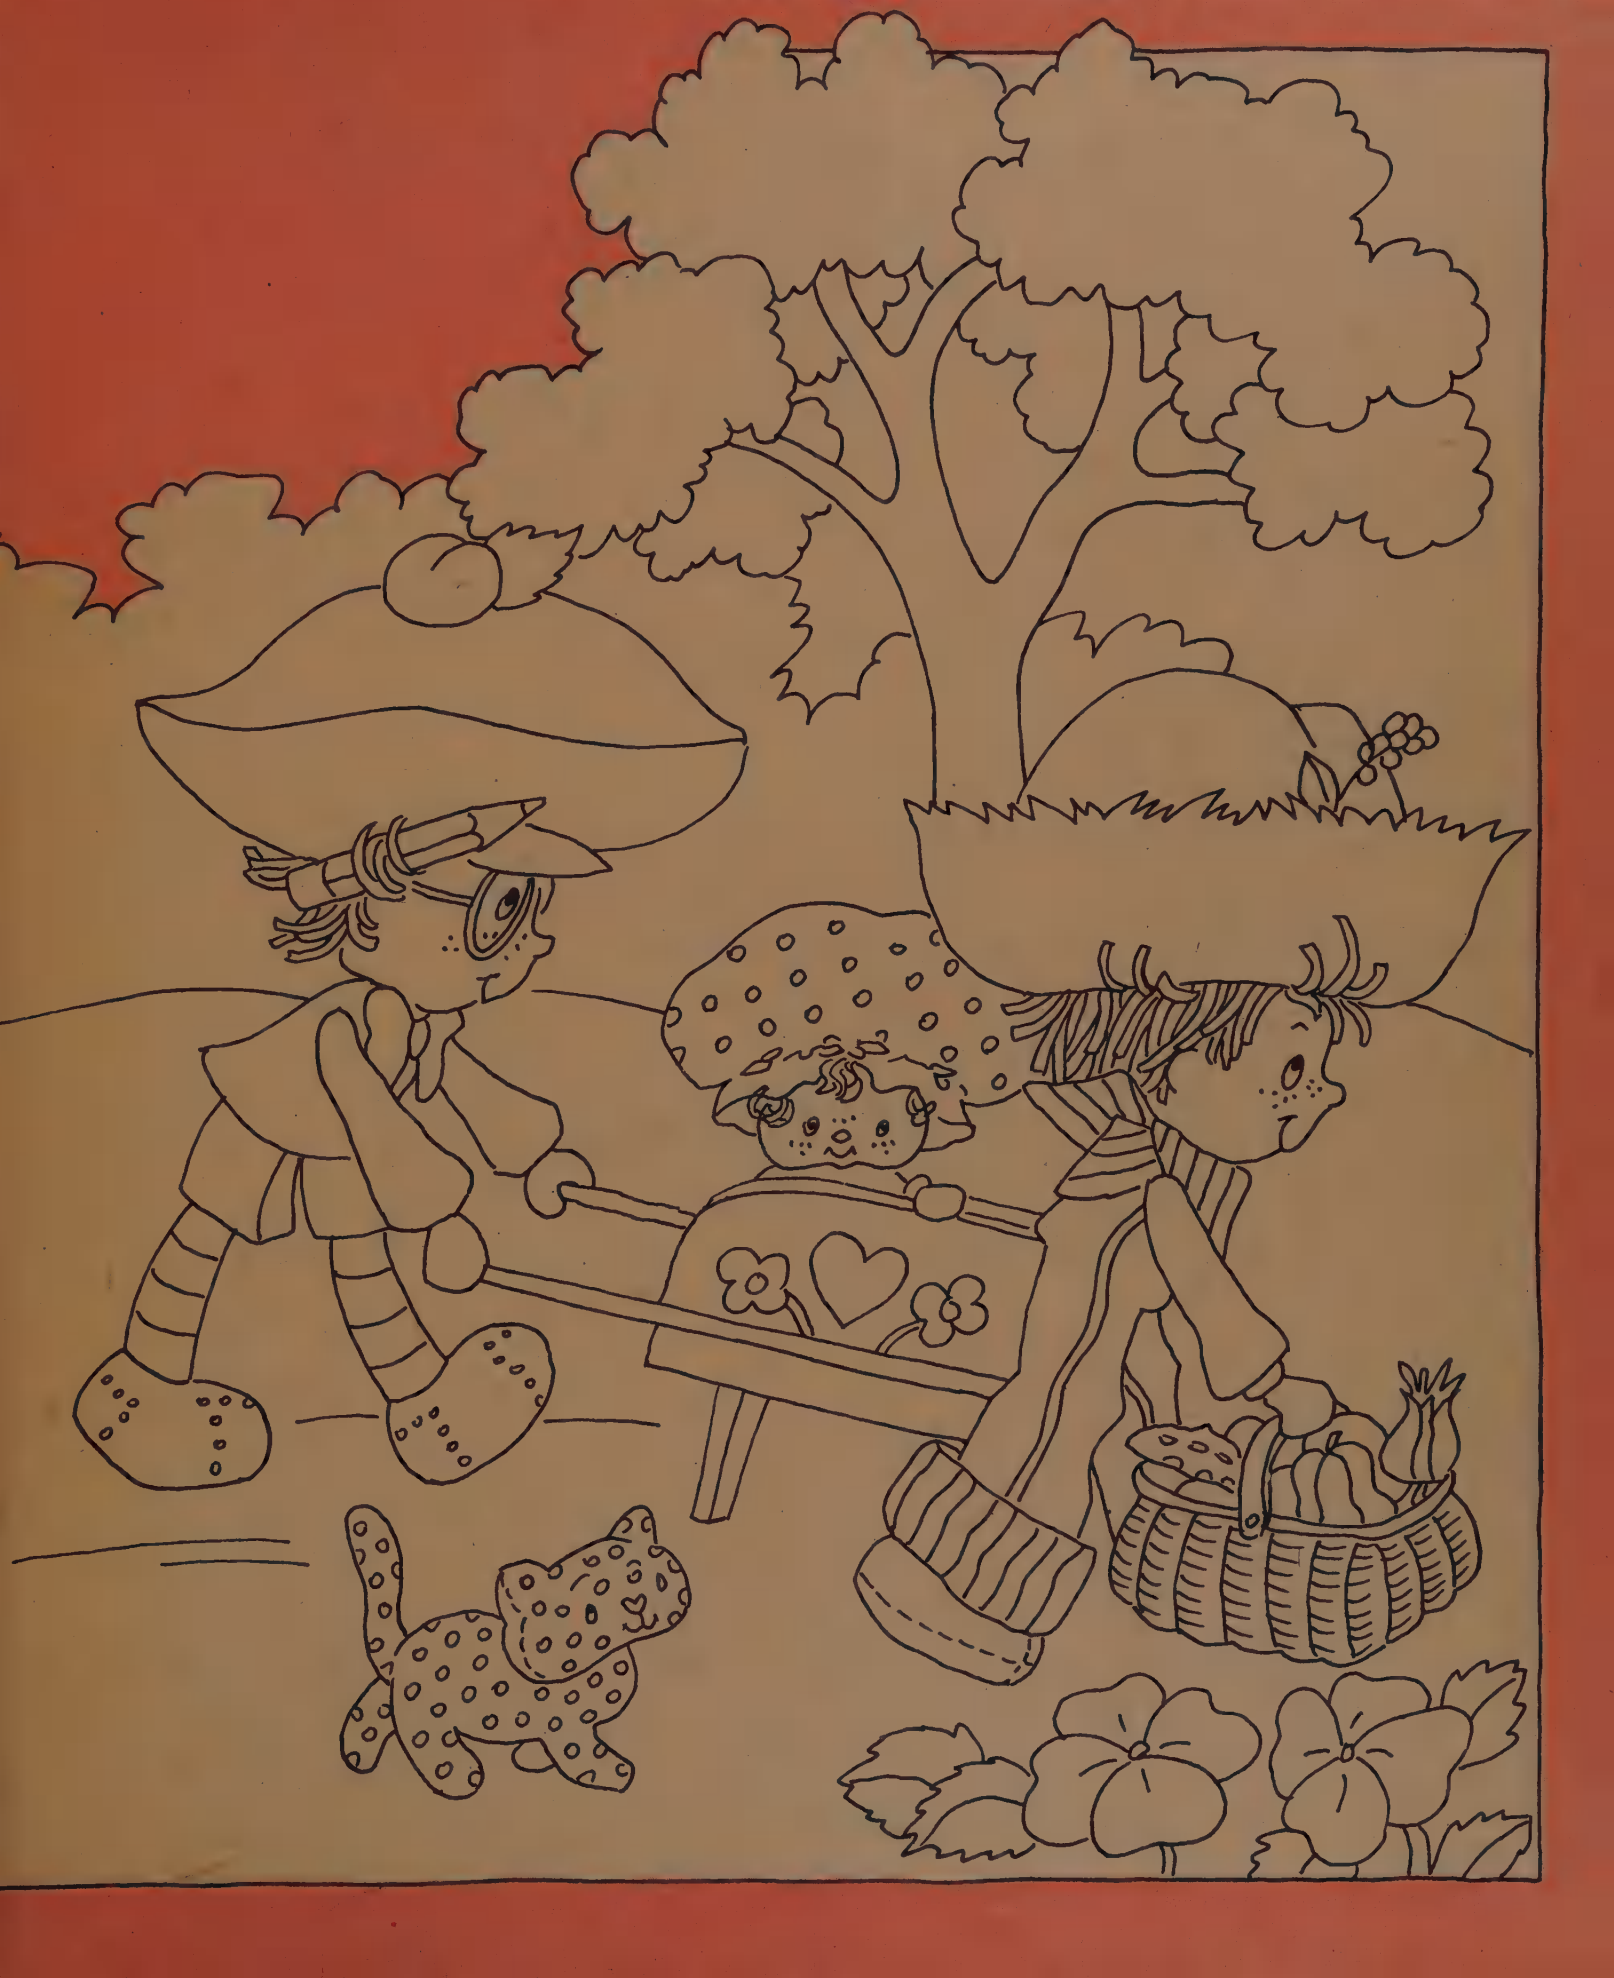
Cheese is great for a picnic.
And the Strawberry Kids like jam sandwiches.

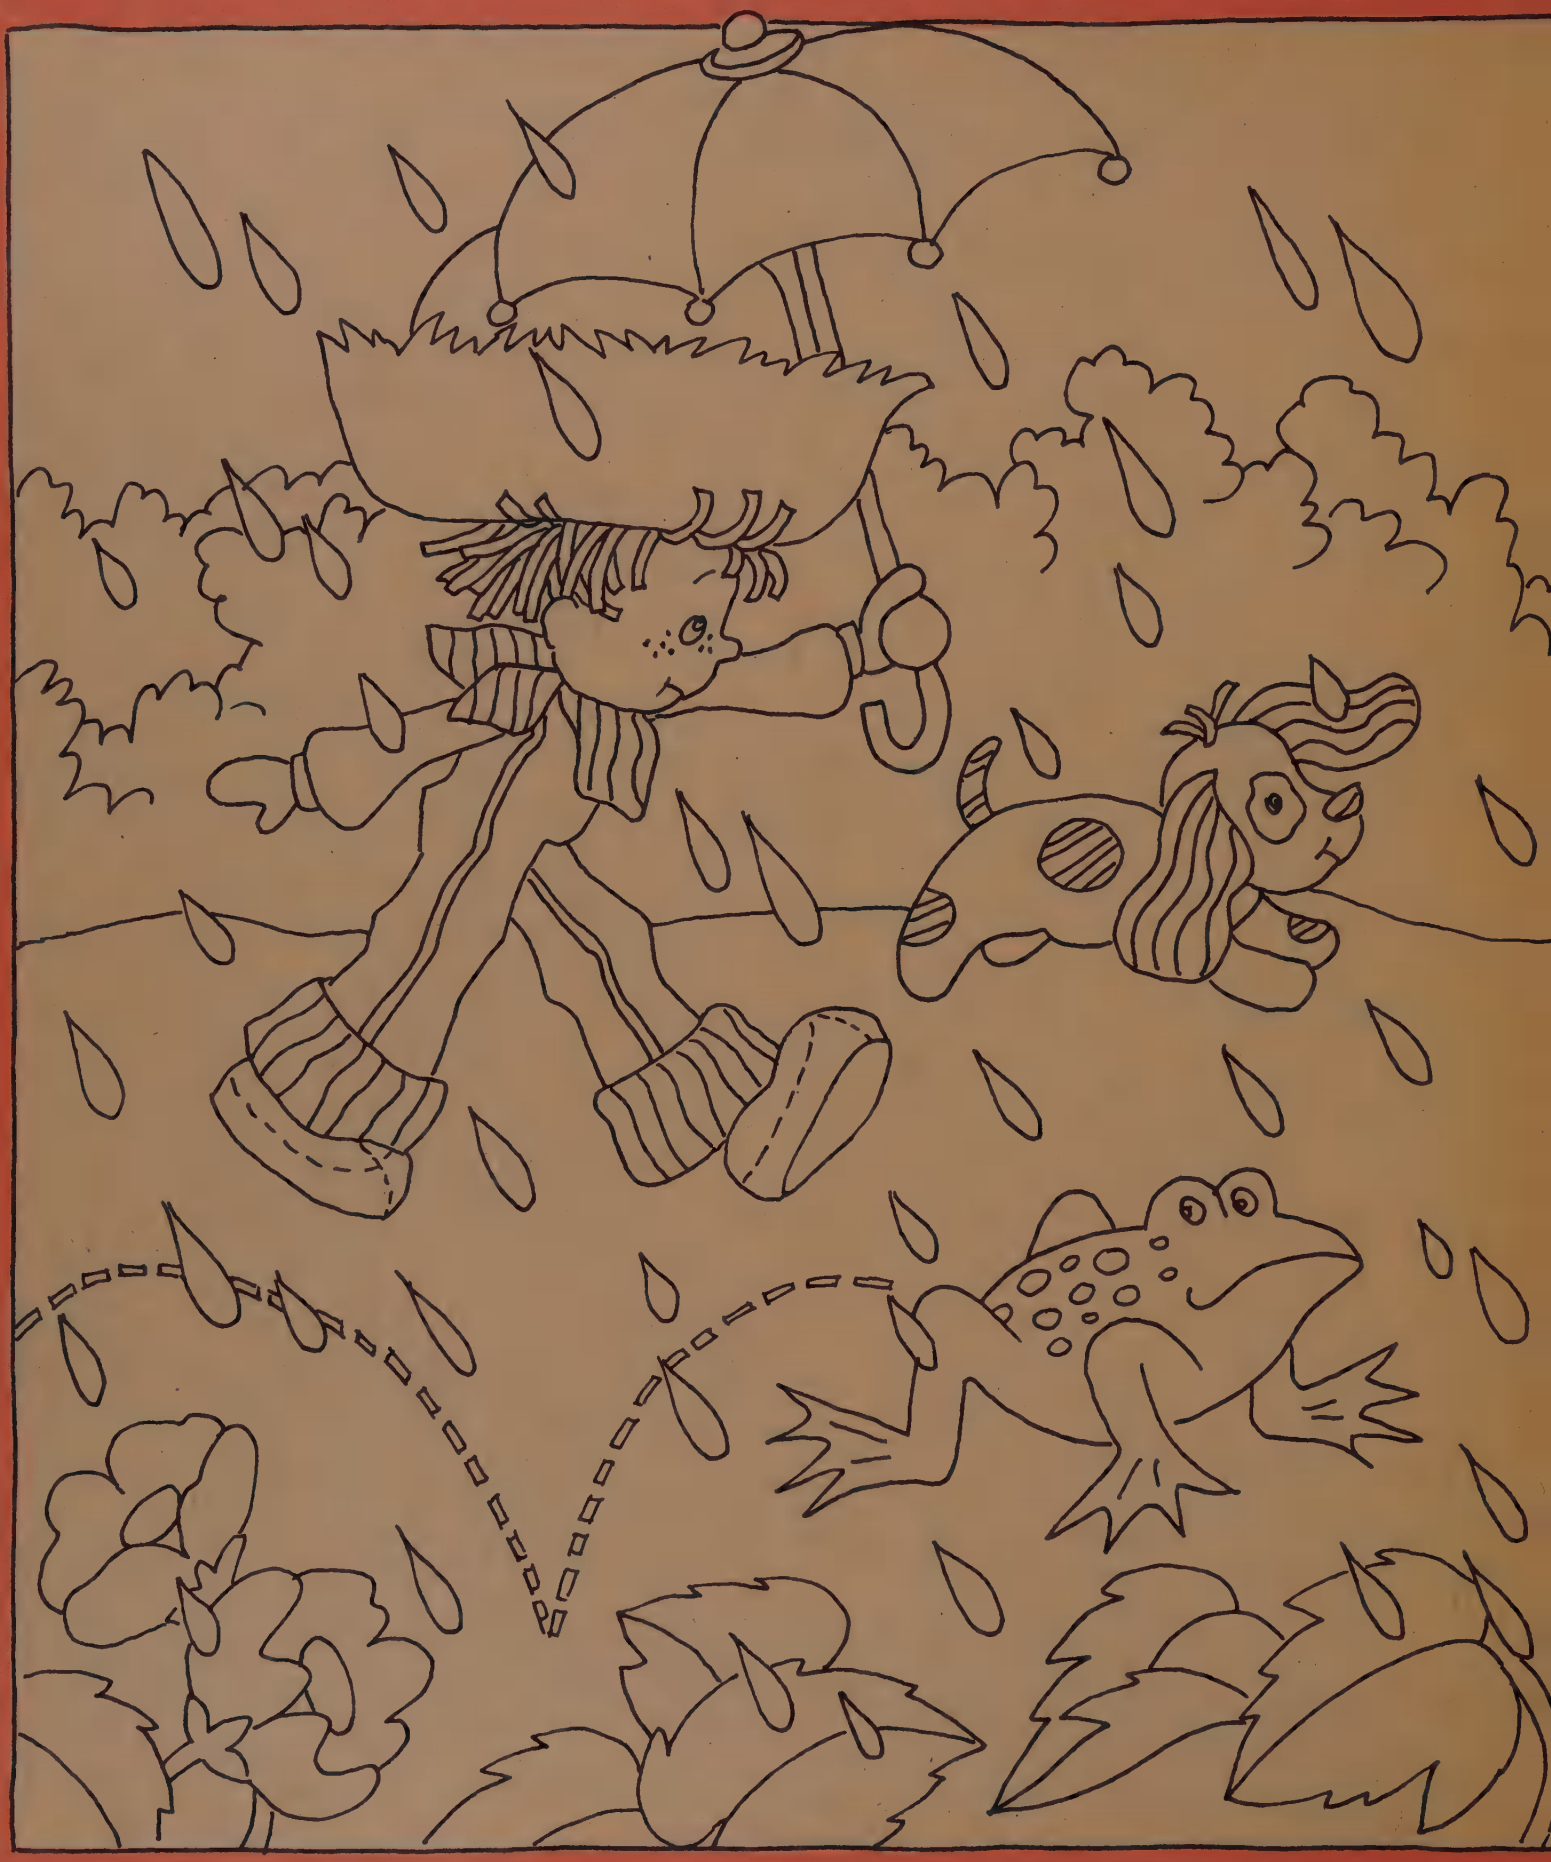
"Our picnic lunch is almost ready," says Blueberry Muffin.

"Wait!" says Huckleberry Pie. "We need a pickle. And here's a pineapple, too."

Everyone is hungry! But first they have to find a nice shady spot for their picnic.



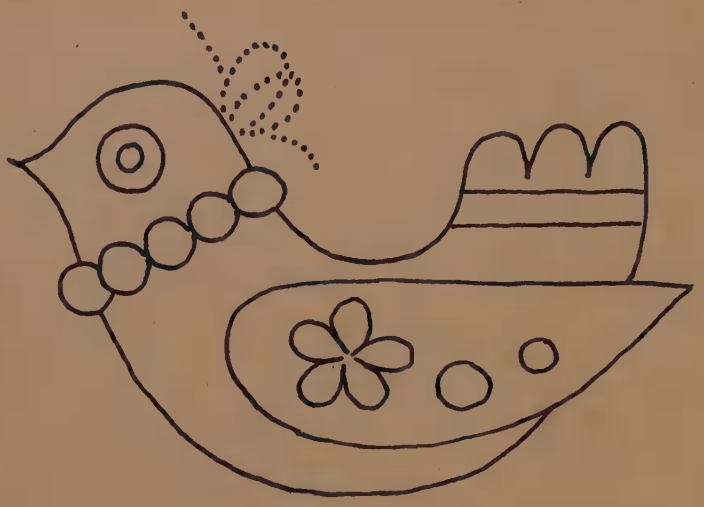
"Let's make a giant sandwich!" says Plum Puddin'.



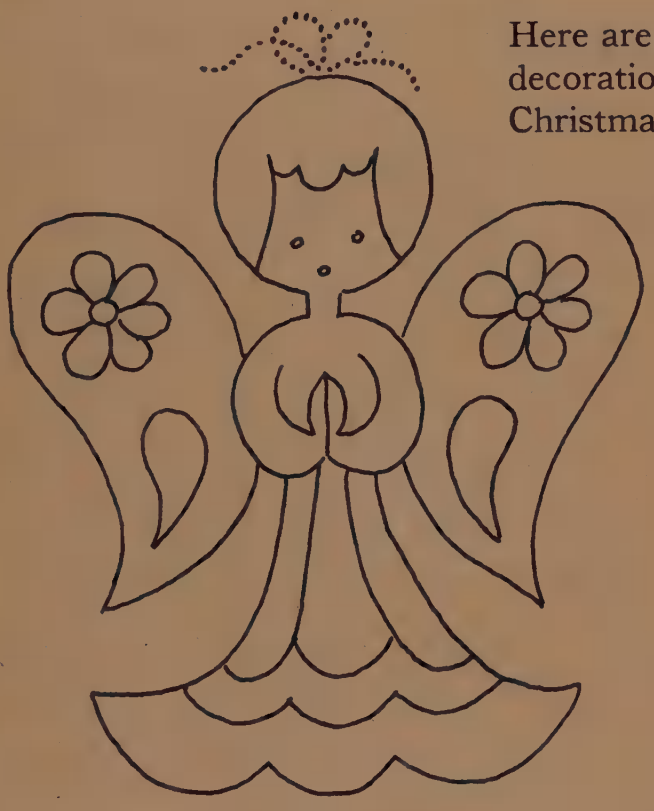
Oh no. It's raining! The Strawberry Kids finished their picnic just in time!

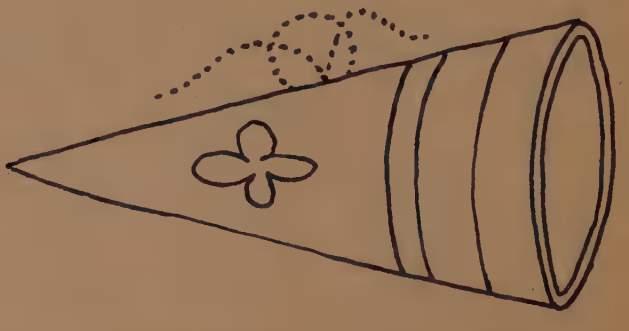
In the wintertime, the Kids like to sit in the warm house and listen to Strawberry Shortcake read stories.

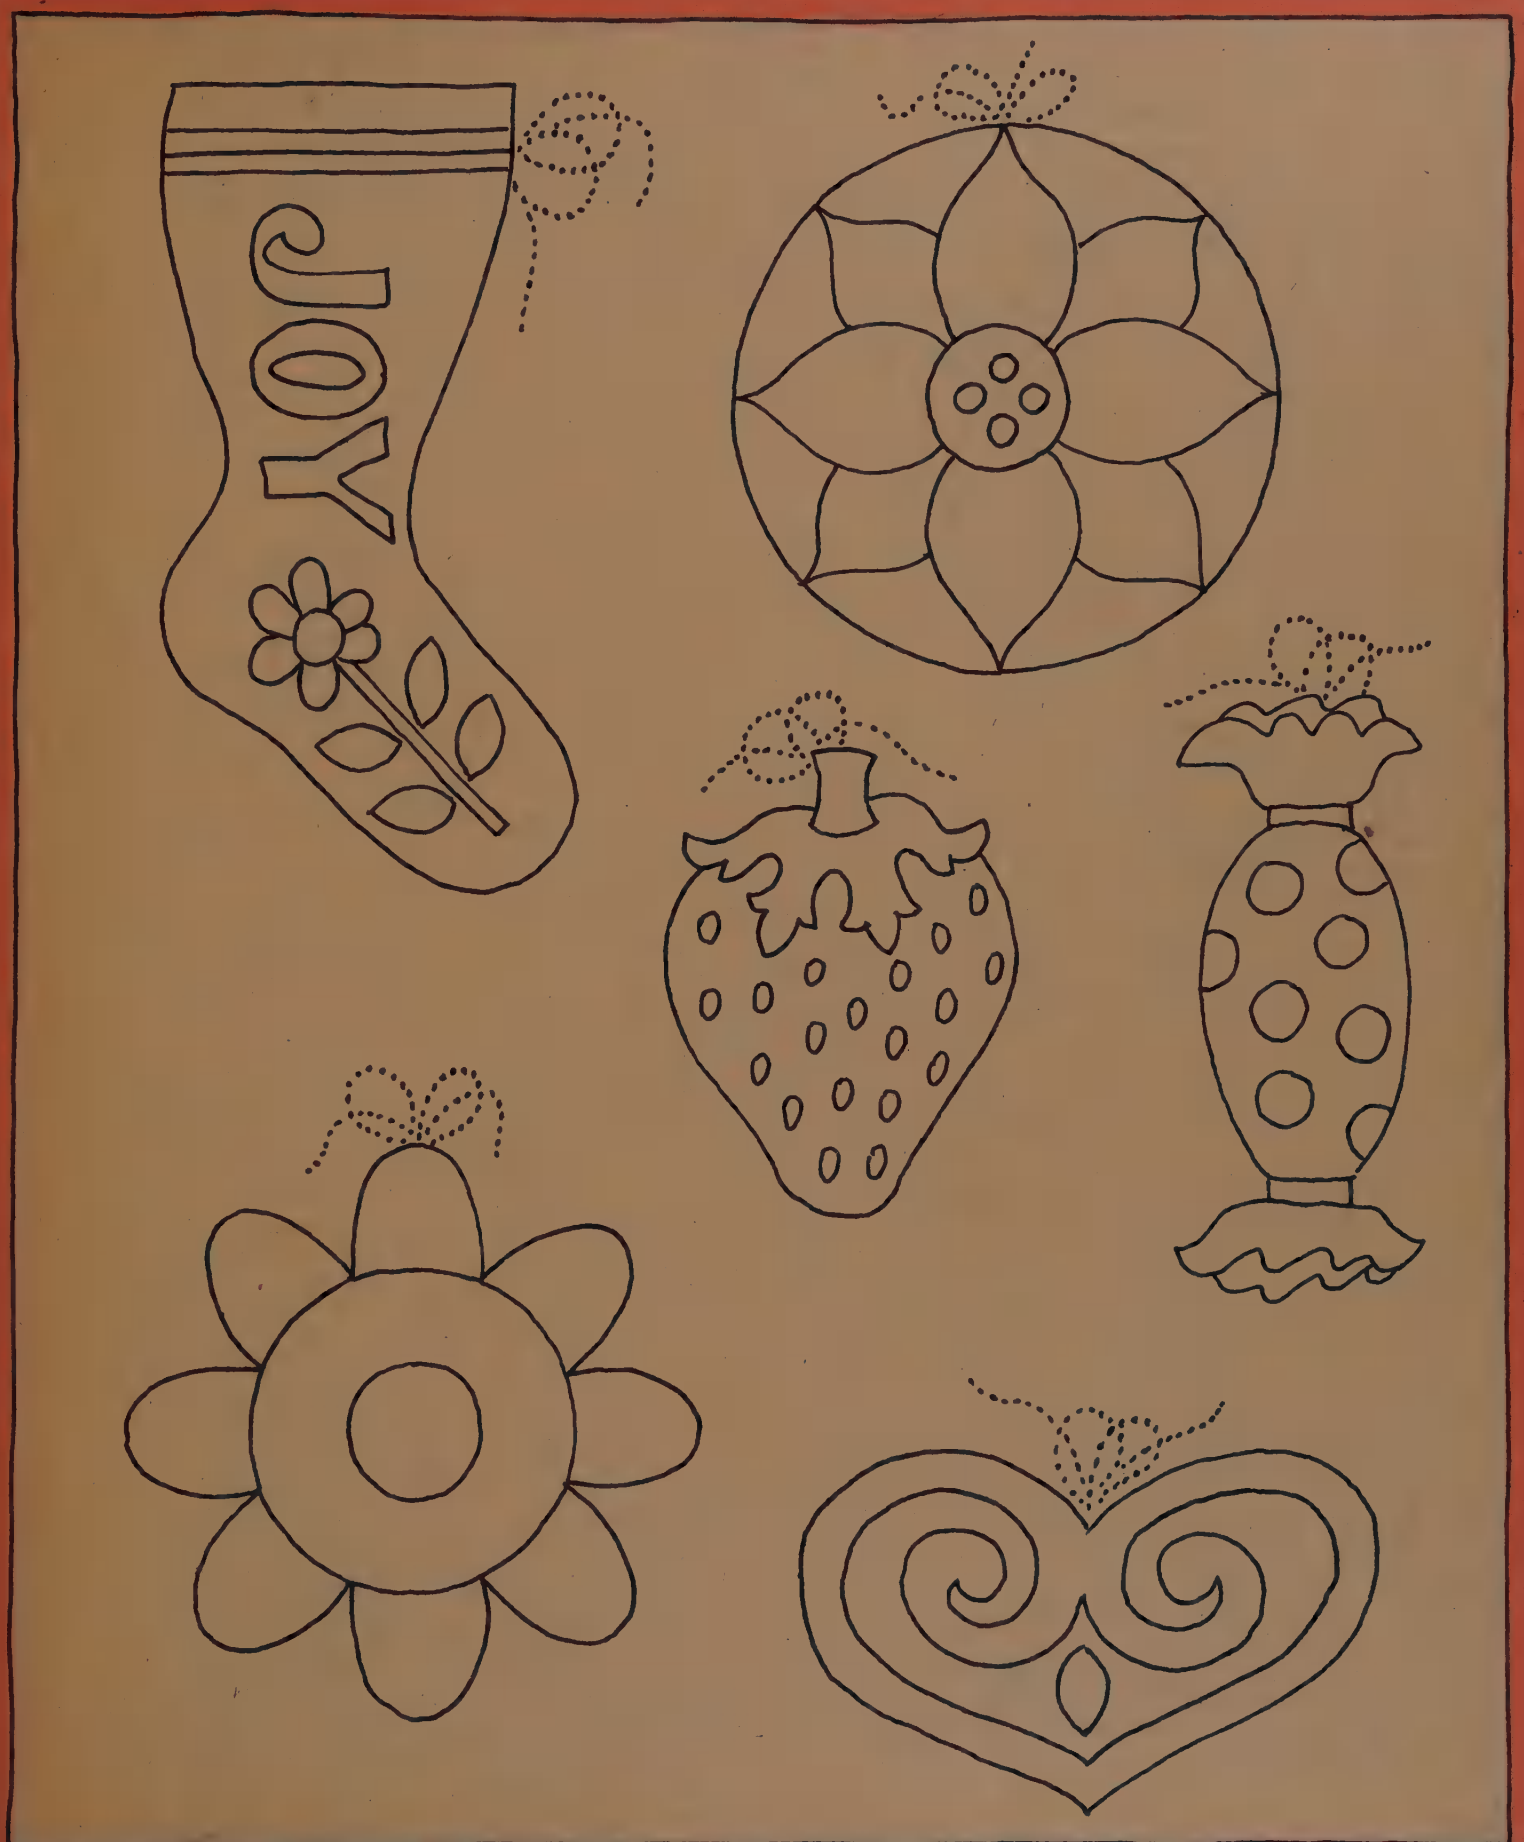
Look! It's snowing!



Here are some pretty decorations for the Christmas tree.







JOY

It's time to fill the stockings.

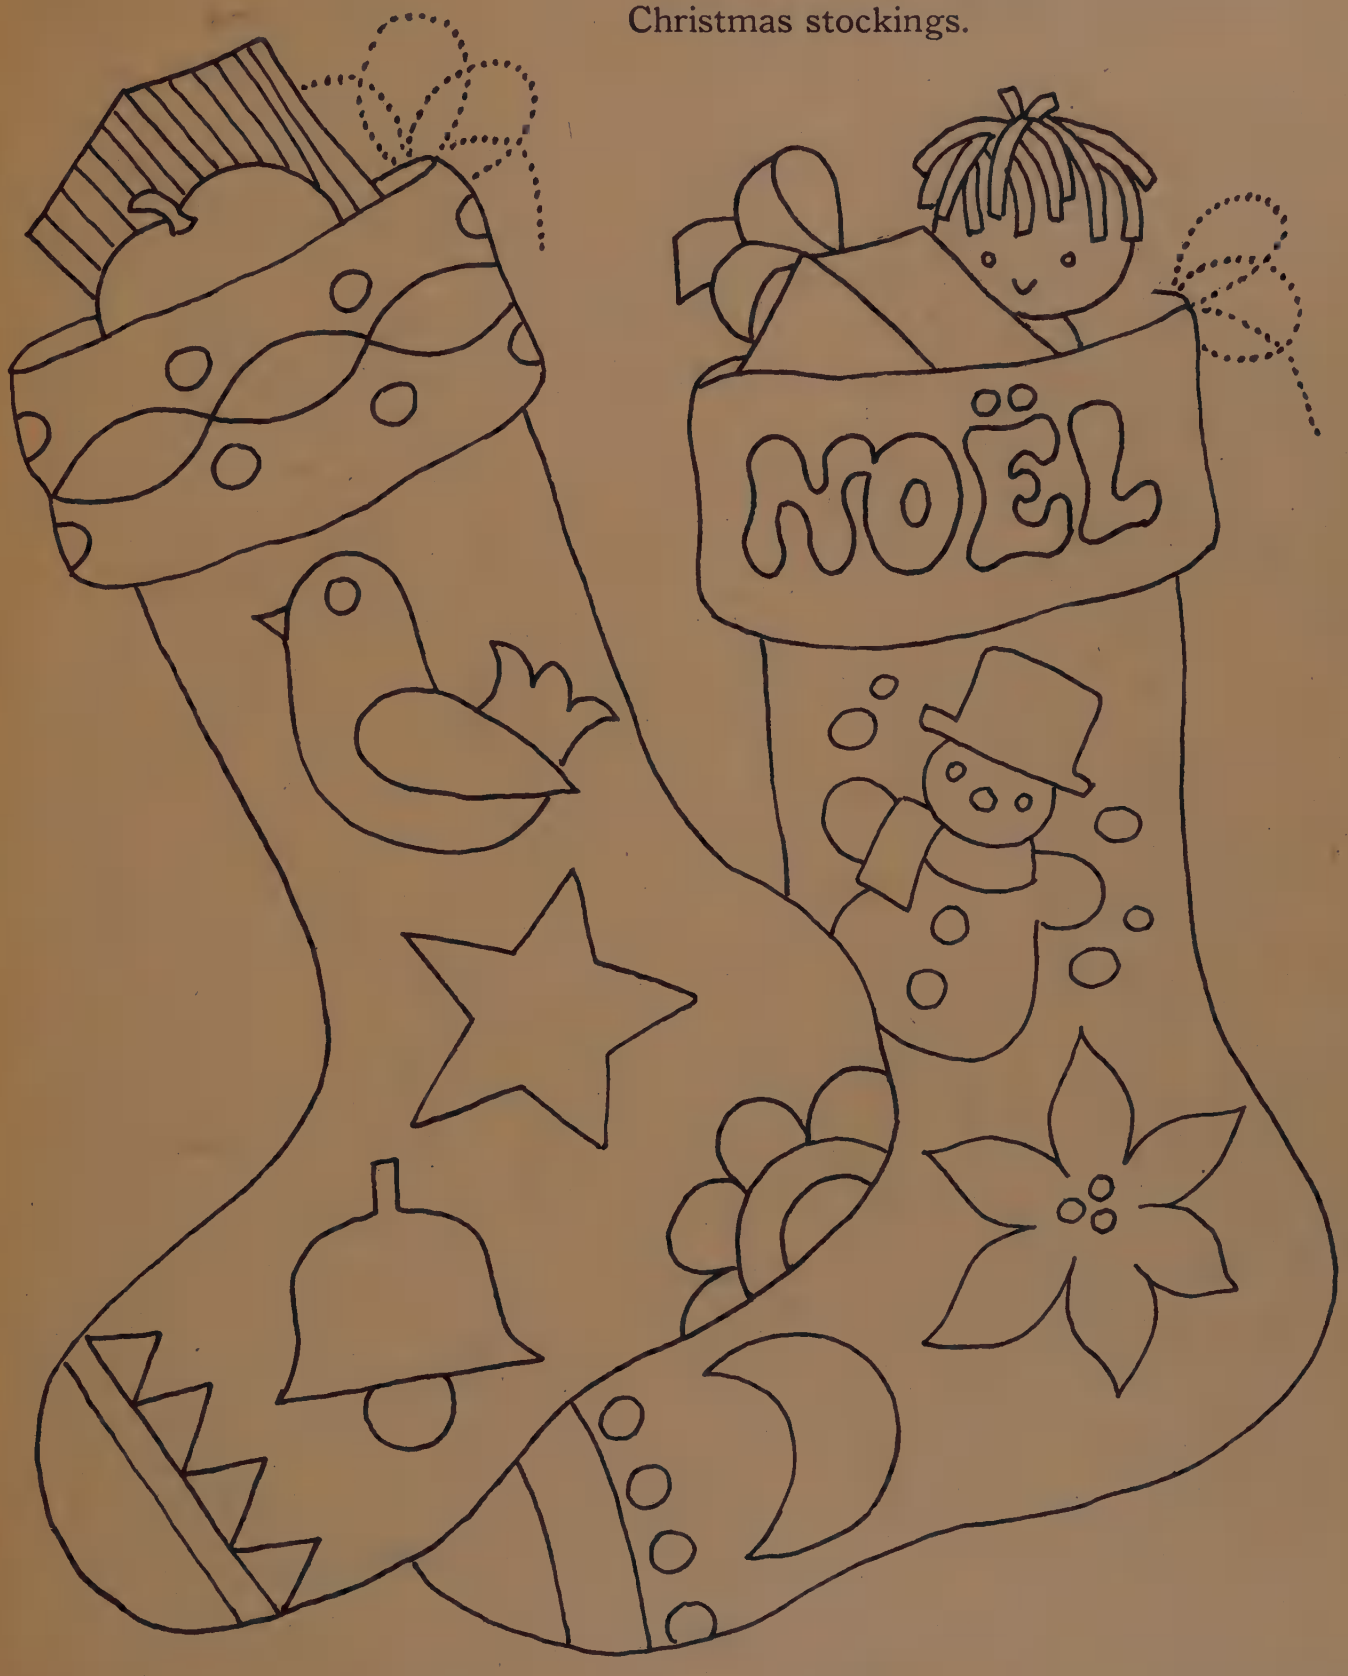
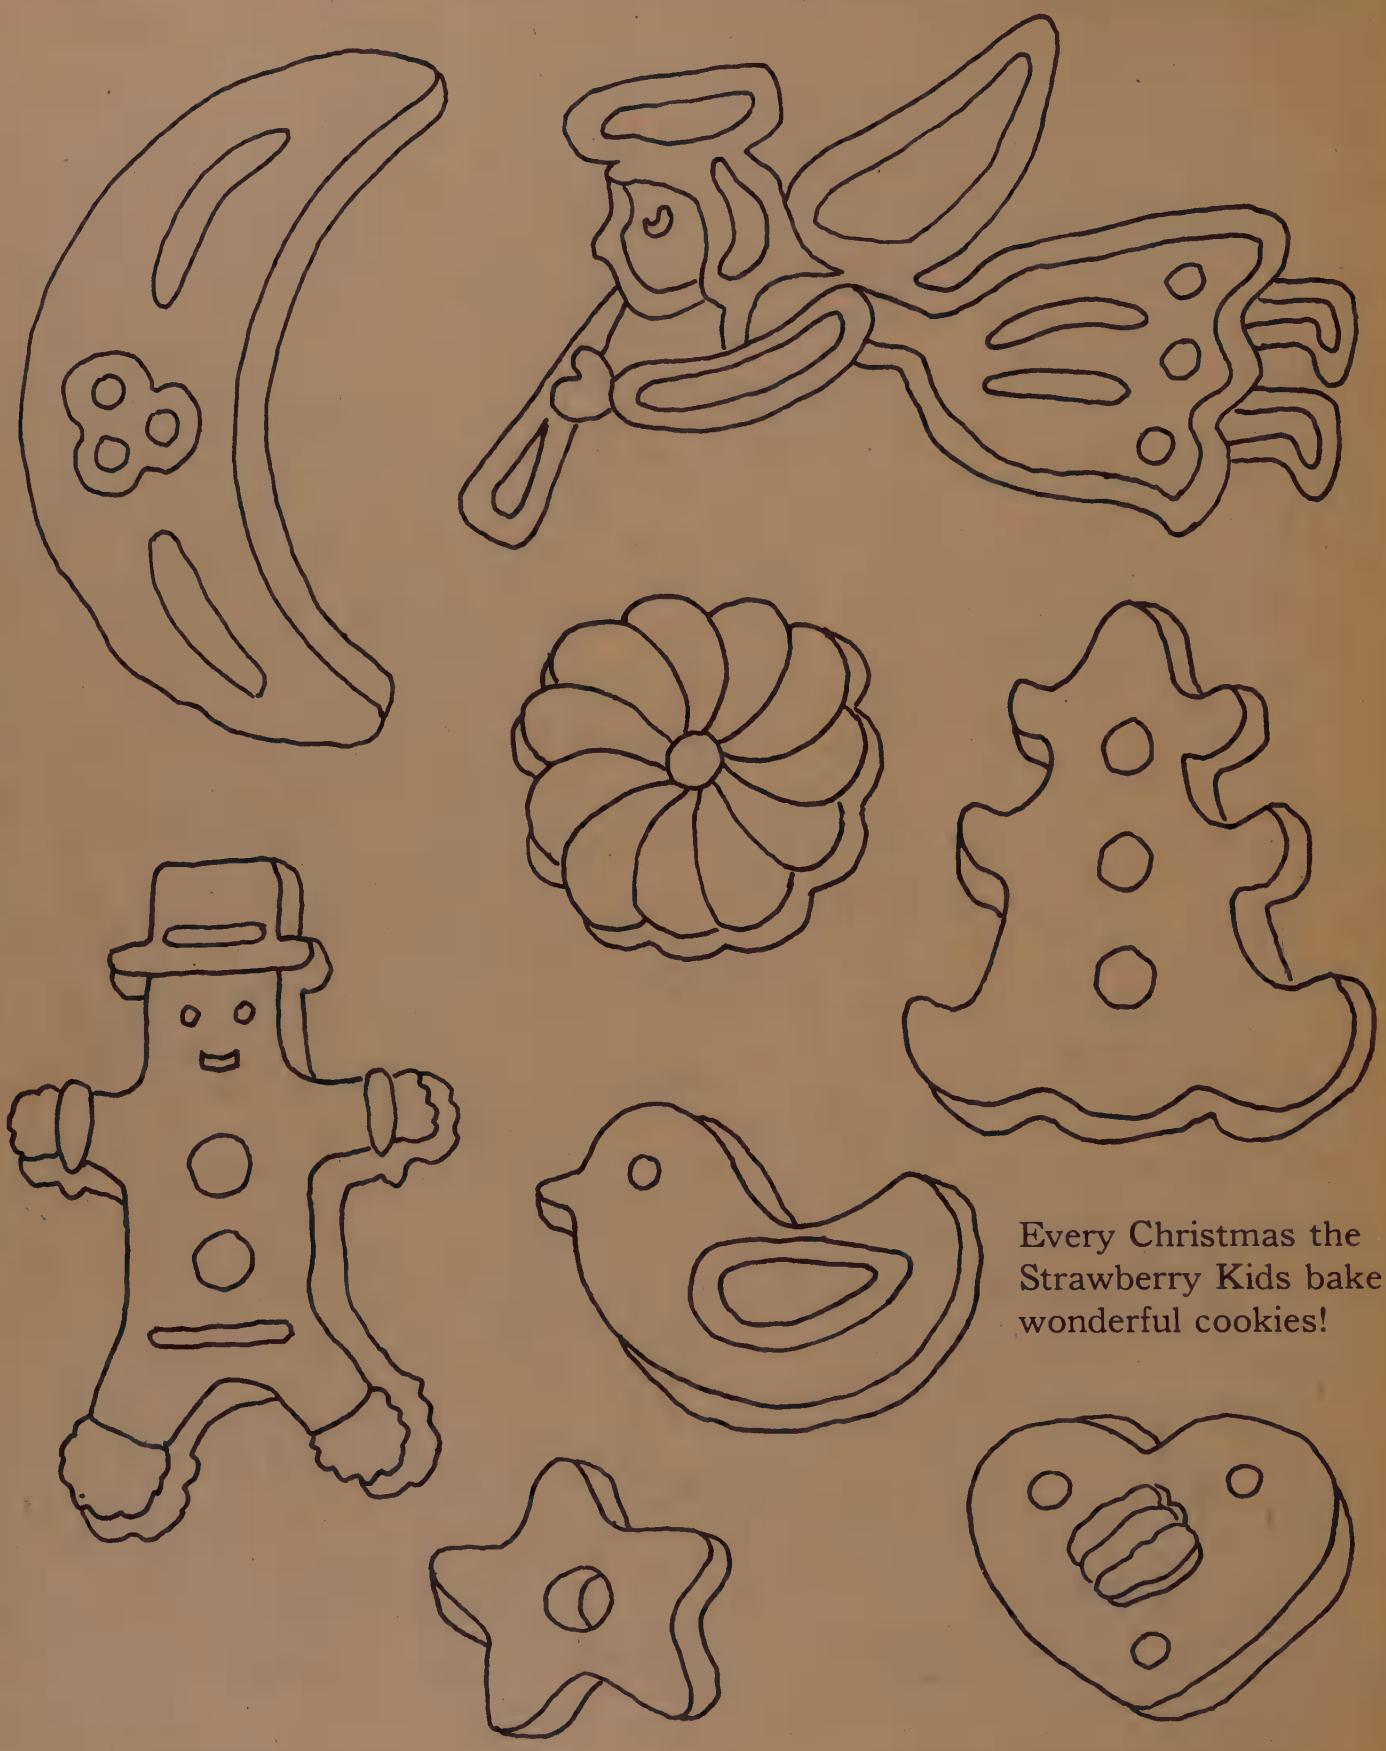
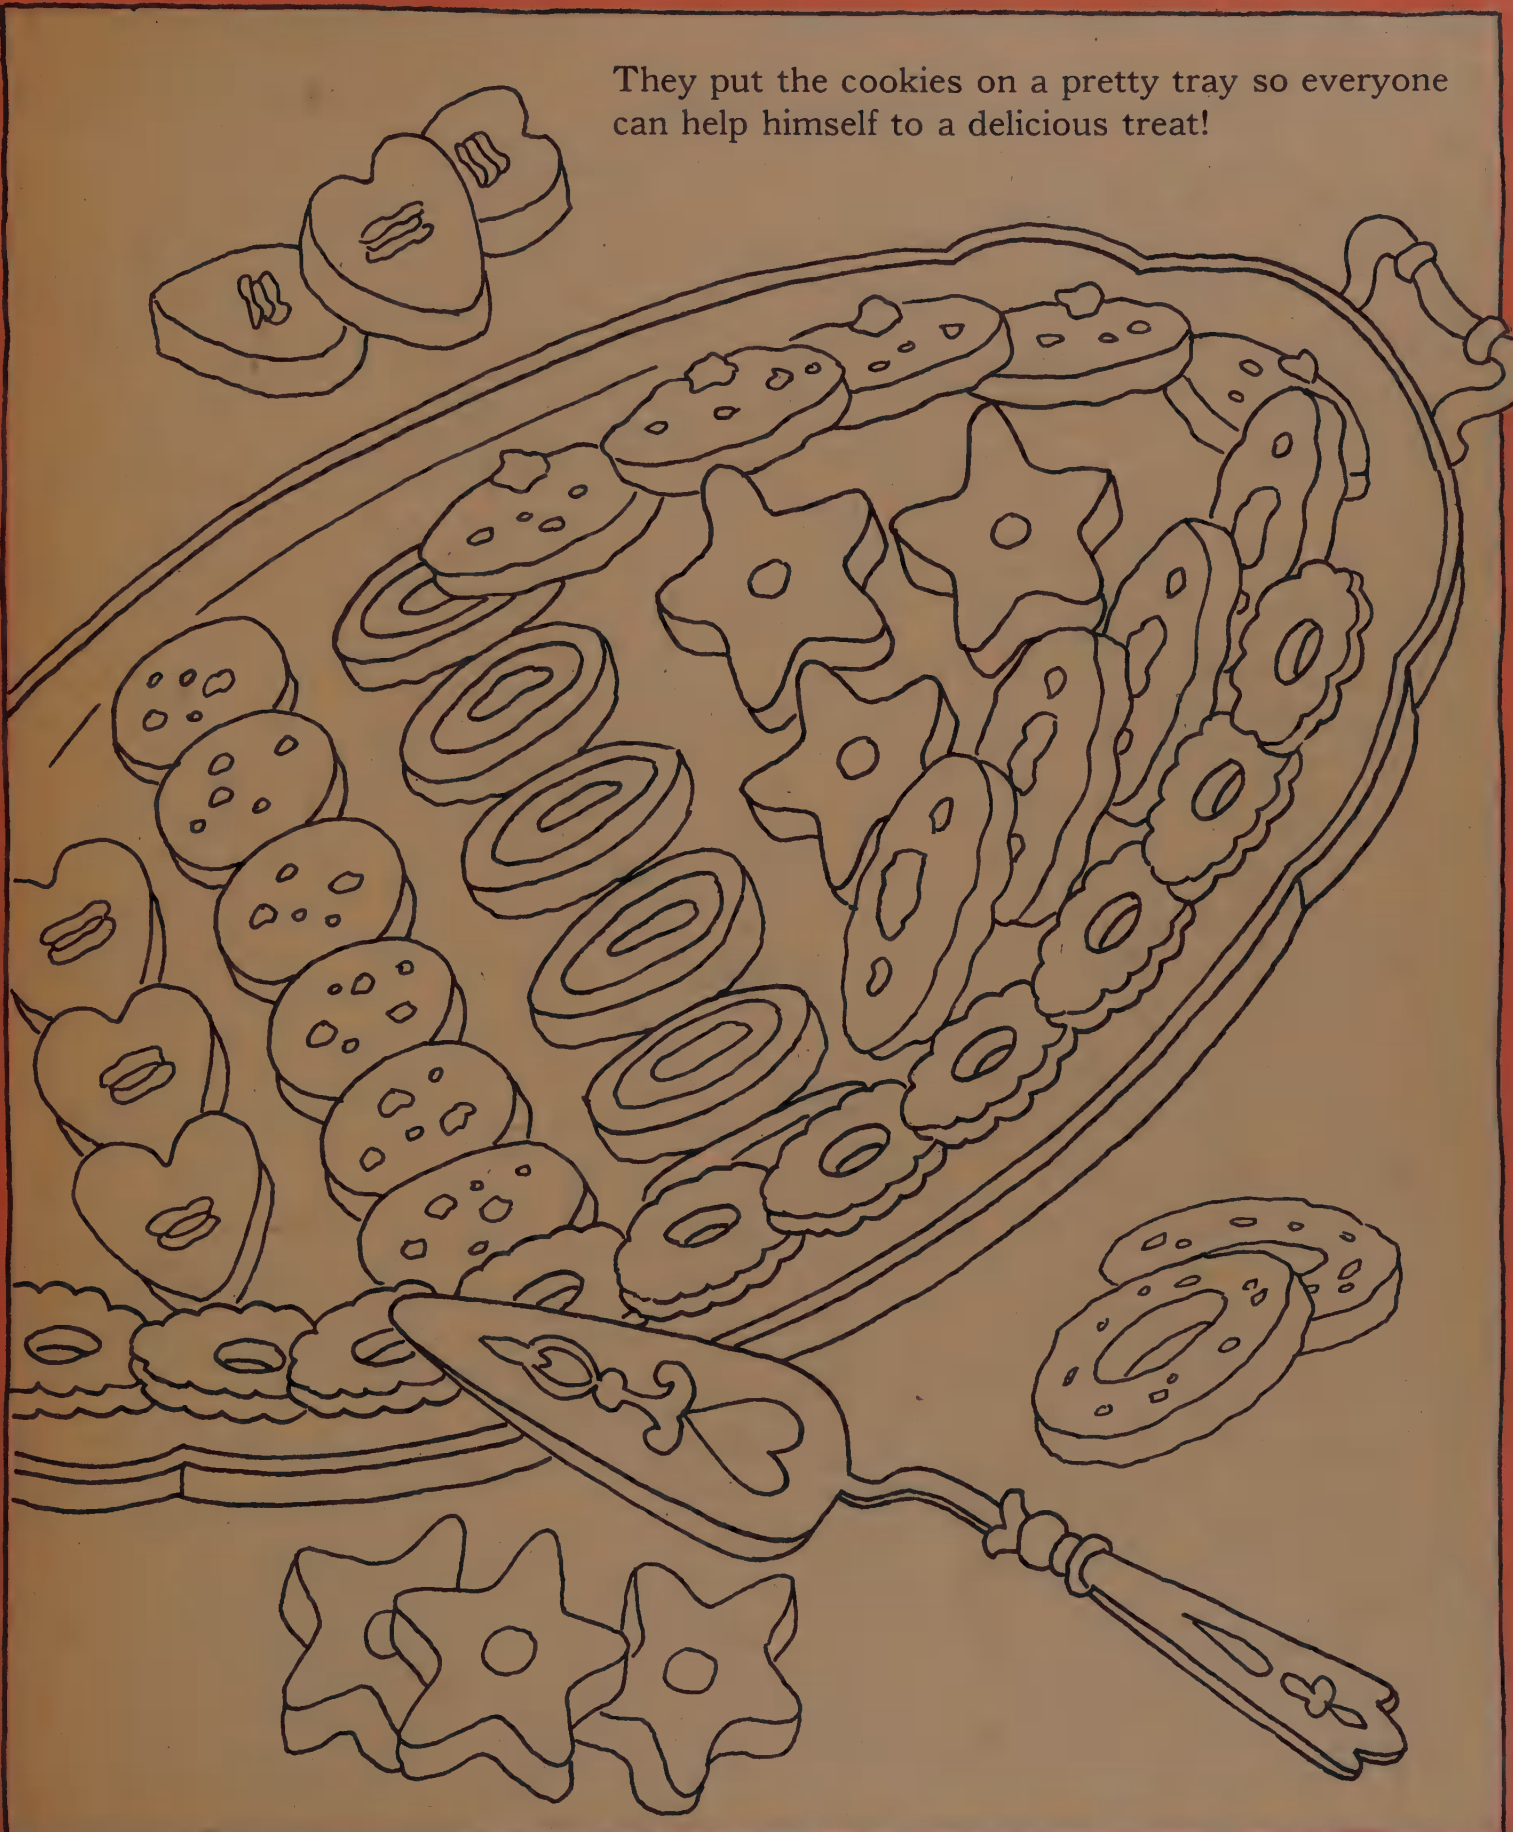
The Strawberry Kids have very special Christmas stockings.





Every Christmas the Strawberry Kids bake wonderful cookies!

They put the cookies on a pretty tray so everyone can help himself to a delicious treat!

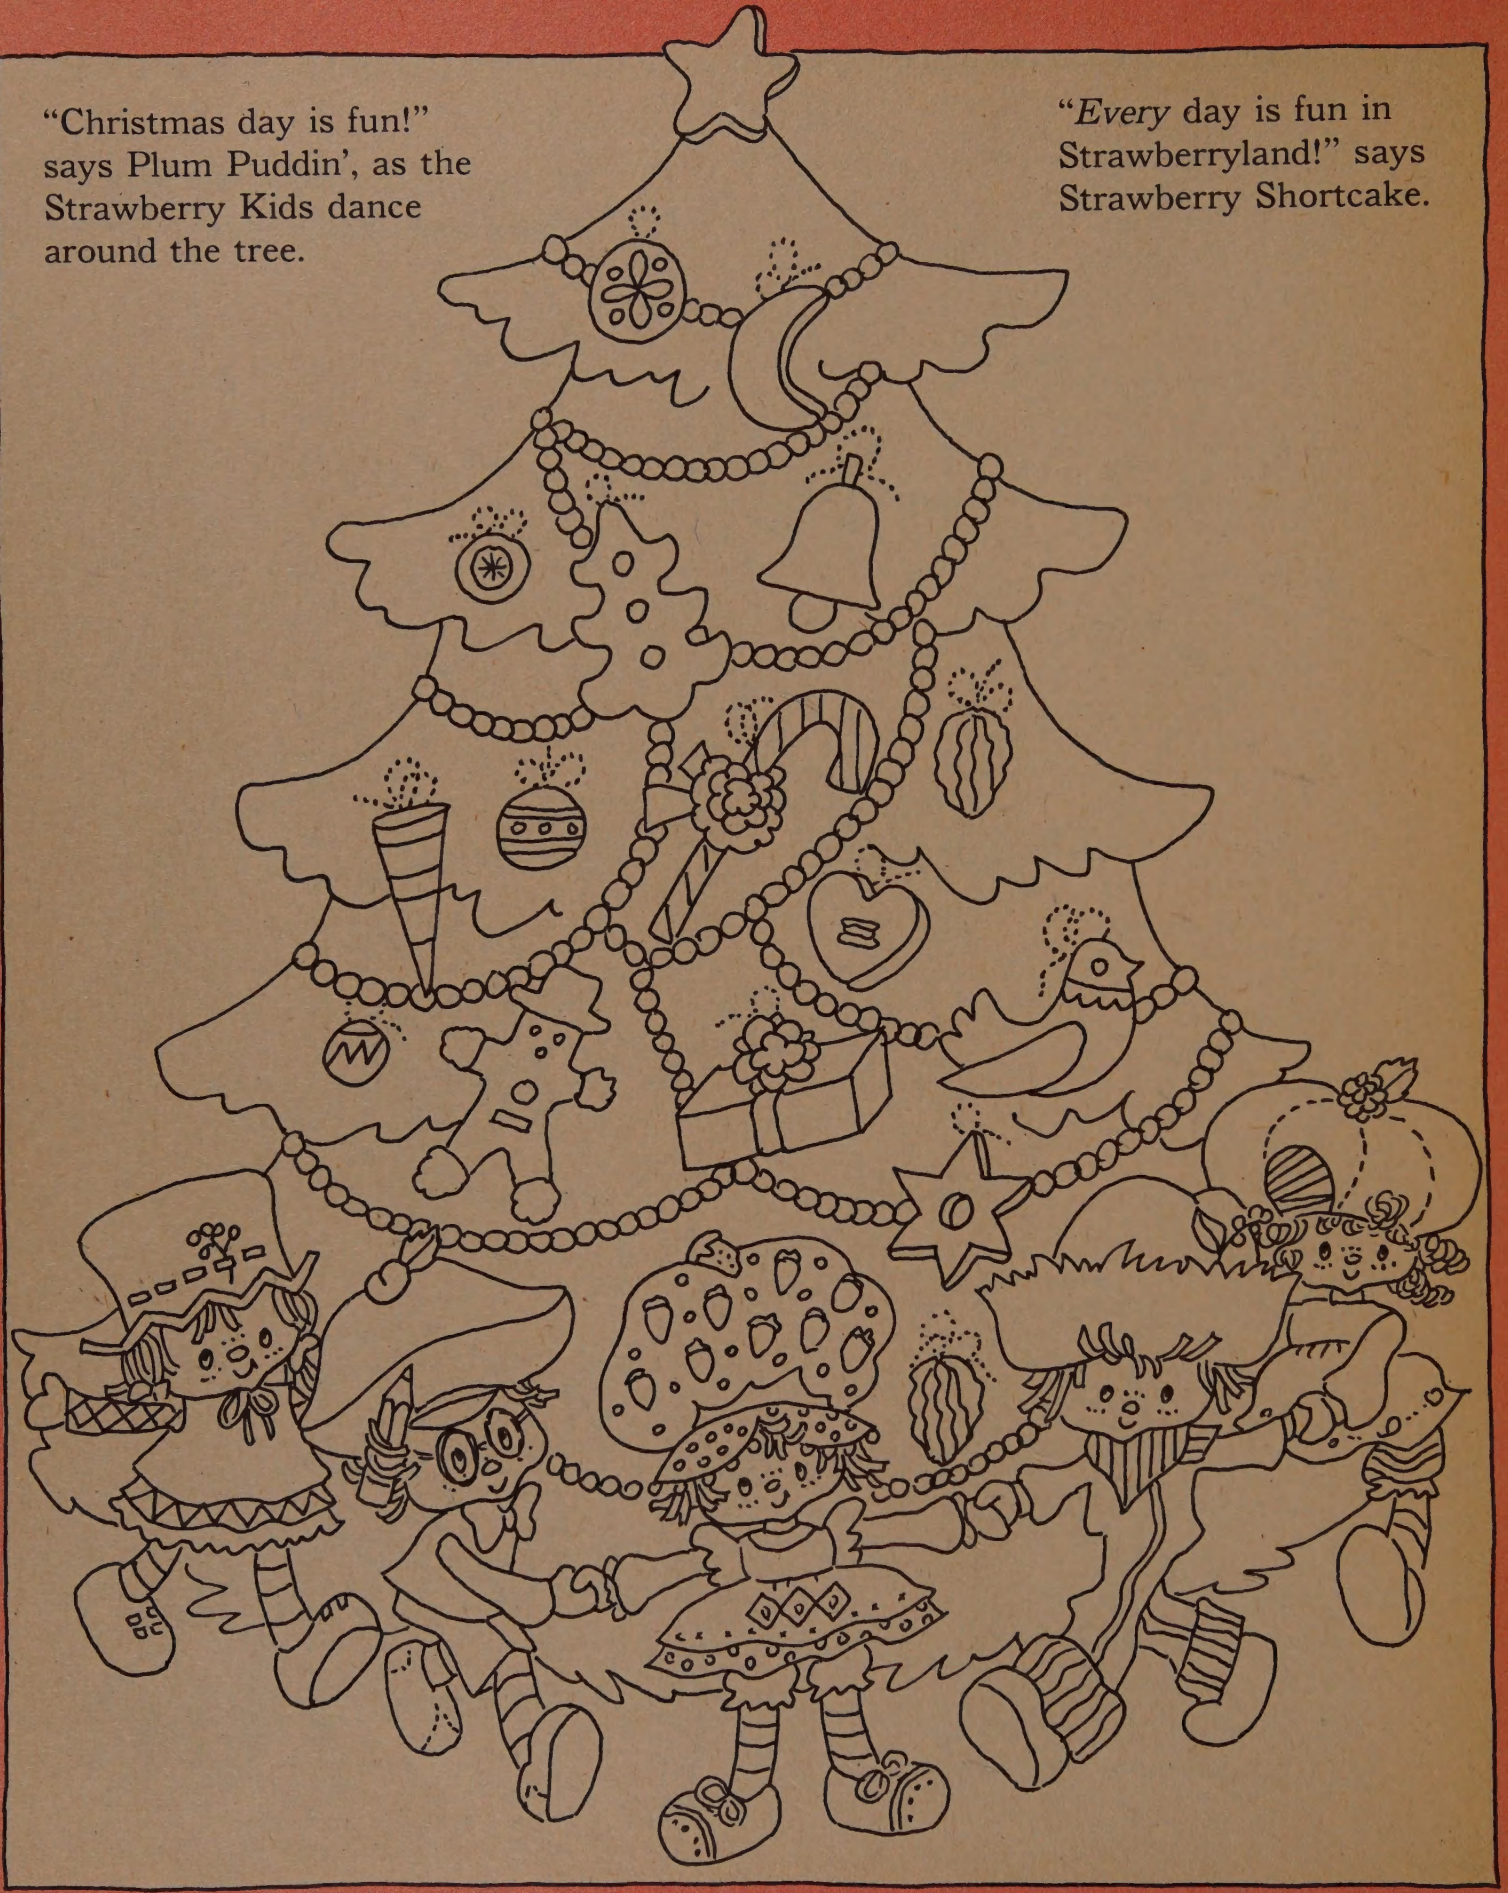


Strawberry Shortcake and Plum Puddin' are going to hang their big, fancy cookies on the tree.

Be careful, Huckleberry Pie!
Don't drop that cookie!

"Christmas day is fun!" says Plum Puddin', as the Strawberry Kids dance around the tree.

"Every day is fun in Strawberryland!" says Strawberry Shortcake.



In this storybook to color, the Strawberryland Kids have lots of fun working and playing together. You can color pictures of Strawberry Shortcake planting seeds, Blueberry Muffin playing hide-and-seek, and Plum Puddin' making the biggest picnic lunch ever! And of course, there are millions of delicious berries to color in Strawberryland!

$1.95
394-84574-9

P6-APP-833